BREAKFAST CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Branham, Hawkins, Hawkins, Richardson

The South Carolina Breakfast Club's annual election was held at Berry's On The Hill, Orangeburg, on Sunday, October 19, 1975. There were 25 planes with 75 people in attendance. The following people were elected officers for the year 1976: Bill Hawkins, President; J.E. Lineberry, Upper-State Vice-President; Col. Ret. "Rich" Richardson, Mid-State Vice President; Rudy Branham, Lower-State Vice President; Anne Hawkins, Secretary-Treasurer; Coy Derrick, Historian.

In accepting the position of president for the fourth year, Bill Hawkins had these comments, "Due to 1976 being the Bicentennial year, I am expecting many invitations from airports and towns around the state to help them with their individual celebrations, and I am challenging the vice presidents to stir up the Breakfast Club activities in their areas." Bill stated that he wishes to thank the club for their confidence in him and pledges his every effort in the coming year. He also extends an invitation to all pilots of the state to attend these meetings.

The Breakfast Club meeting on October 5 was well attended but the weather was marginal and only 8 planes flew in to this meeting in Spartanburg. 35 people were on hand for an excellent breakfast at Wofford College.

A special meeting was held on October 11 at the Charleston Air Force Base. Due to foggy weather conditions, only 10 planes came in but around 45 people
