Expected Results:
Provide effective oversight of the Commission.

Outcome Measures:
Appropriate administration of the Agency's programs and activities for the citizens of South Carolina.

1141 Administration

The Administrative Unit is responsible for the overall operation and provision of support services for the Agency, as well as serving as a point of contact for, and as facilitator in the statewide community with respect to the Agency's mission. The Agency administers the South Carolina Human Affairs Law, as amended; the South Carolina Fair Housing Law as enacted in 1989; and the Equal Enjoyment and Privileges to Public Accommodations Act. The Commissioner, the Chief Executive Officer of the Agency, is employed by the Agency's Governing Board (15 Members) with the approval of the Governor. The Commissioner directs and coordinates all agency operations and ensures they effectuate the policies, rules and regulations established by the Commission and the mandates of the South Carolina Human Affairs Law. These include various regulations and reporting requirements of the Governor's Office, General Assembly, Budget and Control Board and other State Government agencies and certain federal regulations regarding recordkeeping and reporting. The Commissioner is responsible for hiring an administrative staff to assist in carrying out the support services necessary for the smooth operation of the Budgetary Program No.: 1.

Expected Results:
1. Improve the ability of the Agency to achieve the enforcement of its assigned laws efficiently and effectively.
2. Provide legal advice and counsel to Agency staff, government agencies as well as to businesses and individuals.

Outcome Measures:
1. Process subpoenas for enforcement to ensure timeliness of investigations.
2. Respond to the requisite number of Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests.
3. Participation in numerous outreach and training seminars.
4. Review all SHAC investigations for legal sufficiency. During FY 2009-2010: The Legal Department responded to 13 requests for subpoenas; 99 requests under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA); participated in three (3) outreach and training seminars; and reviewed a total of 1,254 SHAC investigations.

1143 Technical Services & Training

The Commission was created to prevent and eliminate problems in human affairs. The Technical Services and Training Division's primary purpose and functions are to prevent discrimination. The Division provides the technical support and necessary consultation and training to state agencies that are required by state law (Sections 1-13-110 & R65-20 of the South Carolina Code of Laws of 1976, as amended) to develop and file their affirmative action plans that are compliant with state and federal regulations. The Division monitors agencies' affirmative action compliance and progress, and in accordance with Section 1-13-110 of the South Carolina Human Affairs Law and Proviso 72.16 of the FY 2004-2005 Appropriations Act, the Division prepares and submits a report on the status of State Agencies' Affirmative Action Plans and Programs by February 1st of each year to the General Assembly. The Division also develops and teaches educational seminars designed to familiarize employers with state and federal EEO laws and recommends practical methods to prevent discrimination. These seminars are offered to any employer, public or private, including the SC General Assembly, upon request. (Section 1-13-70 of the SC Code of Laws of 1976, as amended).

1145 Intake & Referral

Intake and Referral services are provided for persons who believe they have been discriminated against in the areas of employment or other practices on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age (40 or above), national origin, disability, or public accommodations on the basis of race, color, religion, or national origin. This process involves the initial receipt of inquiries and complaints, screening, interviewing, gathering records and documents, and drafting formal charges of discrimination. This initial stage leads to either mediation, investigation, waiver to the federal government or dismissal and/or referral to a more appropriate source. The normal turnaround processing time is generally within 90 days or less. (Section 1-13-10 et. seq. of the SC Code of Laws of 1976, as amended).

Expected Results:
1. Provide timely service to potential complainants contacting the Agency by mail, telephone, or personal visit. 2. Complete, in a timely manner, the writing of charges to stay within the 90-day turnaround timeframe or less. 3. Provide proper processing and referral of all complaints in a timely manner.

Outcome Measures:
1. Frame all jurisdictional complaints for filing under the Human Affairs Law. 2. Refer non-jurisdictional complaints to appropriate agencies or sources. During FY 2009-2010: 1. Of the approximately 25,000 to 30,000 requests received, 22,000 to 27,000 questionnaires were mailed to potential complainants. 2. Complainants completed and returned for processing approximately 3,000 questionnaires which resulted in 1,046 formal charges of discrimination filed and approximately 1,500 were referred to other sources for various non-jurisdictional reasons.

1146 Employment Discrimination Receipt, Processing & Resolution

This activity provides for the intake, mediation, investigation, and resolution of complaints of unlawful employment discrimination based on race, color, sex, age (40 or above), religion, national origin and mental or physical disability filed against private and public sector employers located in South Carolina (Section 1-13-10 et. seq. of the South Carolina Code of Laws of 1976, as amended). Implementation of this activity enables the State to attain and maintain deferral status over complaints arising in South Carolina which are filed with the U. S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (USEEOC) under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Statewide Result Area:  Improve the health and protections of our children and adults

Strategy:  Provide opportunities for employment and independence.

Outcome Measures:

1. Receipt of 2,400 employment discrimination charges.  2. Investigate to final action all jurisdictional complaints of discrimination received.  3. Maintain 100% acceptance rate of complaint dispositions by the US EEOC.  4. Investigated to final action a total of 1,116 jurisdictional charges of discrimination.  5. Maintained 100% rate of acceptance of complaint disposition by the US EEOC.  6. No cases were overturned by the US EEOC or any Court.

Mediation is an alternative means of redress for South Carolinians who believe that they have been subjected to unlawful discrimination on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age (40 or above), national origin or disability. The primary benefit of this service is to provide a greater potential to preserve some semblance of healthy employee/employer relationship in the future as opposed to adversarial positions parties assume when complaints are investigated. (Section 1-13-70 of the SC Code of Laws of 1976, as amended).

Expected Results:
1. Reduce the average case processing time from assignment to mediation to final resolution. 2. Expand the scope of mediations to include all laws and regulations enforced by the Agency. 3. Secure a higher level of participation by state agencies in the mediation process.

Outcome Measures:
1. Maintain average case processing time. 2. Expand mediation to include Public Accommodations, Fair Housing and Section 90(e) of the Human Affairs Law. 3. Two (2) additional state agencies to participate in the mediation process for the first time. During FY 2009-2010: 1. Over seventy-eight percent (78%) of mediations resulted in Agreements, of which several were in regard to 90(e) and public accommodations.

1148 Fair Housing Investigations

The SC Fair Housing Law, (Section 31-21-10 et. seq. of the SC Code of Laws of 1976, as amended), makes housing discrimination unlawful because of a person's race, color, religion, sex, national origin, physical or mental handicap or familial status. The Commission enforces this law through investigative action.

Expected Results:
1. Process and investigate complaints in an efficient and effective manner. 2. Conduct case processing within the strict 100-day timeframe. 3. Maximize the number of complaints resolved consistent with the Agency’s staffing level while assuring adherence to applicable state and federal qualitative standards. 4. Maintain a high acceptance rate of final actions by the U. S. Dept. of Housing & Urban Development (HUD). 5. Conciliation of cases in accordance with HUD regulations and guidelines and the SC Fair Housing Law. 6. Reduce the need and opportunity for federal enforcement within the State.

Outcome Measures:
1. Final resolution through conciliation and investigation of all fair housing complaints. 2. Maintain a 75% case processing within the 100-day timeframe. 3. Minimize the need for costly litigation to complainants by maintaining a high percentage of case resolutions. During FY 2009-2010: 1. Eighty-one (81) Fair Housing complaints were investigated to final resolution. 2. Seventy-seven percent (77%) of cases were processed within the 100-day timeframe. 3. Two (2) complaints investigated by the Agency required litigation.
