

FACTS ABOUT FOSTER KIDS

Florence County

2005

(2004 Data)

A Publication of the South Carolina Governor's Office – Division of Foster Care Review

OVERVIEW

Facts About Foster Kids is intended to provide annual data about children in foster care for every county in South Carolina. It covers: Demographics -- how many children there are in foster care, their characteristics and whether their prevalence is increasing or decreasing; Areas of Concern -- legal and program shortcomings identified at monthly citizen reviews; and Progress Measures -- length of time in care, number of placements, achieving permanency, and recidivism rates. Information is collected from local volunteer citizen review boards that review the cases of all children who have been in foster care at least four months; each case is then reviewed every six months thereafter until the child leaves care. The 2005 edition includes complete information about children who were reviewed at least once in 2004. It also includes demographics on those children who entered foster care late in the year and were not reviewed until 2005, but does not yet incorporate them into progress measures or areas of concern.

DEMOGRAPHICS

For Florence County, the number of foster care children reviewed has decreased dramatically since 2002. In 2004, the number of children entering care and leaving care also decreased.

AREAS OF CONCERN

In 2004, Review Board members held 11 meetings and 114 reviews. Of the 114 reviews held, 70 (61%) had at least one area of concern cited by the local Review Board. The most often cited legal violation was No Timely Permanency Plan Hearing. The failure to hold permanency planning hearings according to time frames outlined by state and federal law unnecessarily lengthens the time children remain in foster care. The most often cited program violation was Lack of Progress Permanency Plan.

PROGRESS MEASURES

Four main indicators are used to measure progress towards better outcomes for children in foster care. For each, comparison data for the previous three years are provided.

LENGTH OF TIME IN CARE:

The longer a child is away from their home or a nurturing family environment, the more damaging it can be to the normal development of the child. For this reason, a major goal of the Review Board is to ensure that children achieve permanency as quickly as possible. In 2004, the average length of time a child spent in care was 3.8 years, an increase from 3.2 years in 2003.

NUMBER OF PLACEMENTS:

Research shows the initial placement in foster care is extremely traumatic for a child. Additional changes in placement once in the foster care system can be detrimental to children's development, affecting their ability to learn, establish relationships and develop as stable, secure individuals. In 2004, children in foster care in Florence County averaged 5 placements.

PERCENT ACHIEVING PERMANENCY:

Permanency for a child means placement with a "forever family." A child can achieve legal permanency upon leaving the foster care system either by returning home to their natural parent or by being adopted. In 2004 of the 19 children leaving care, one child was adopted and nine returned home to their natural parent.

RECIDIVISM RATES:

Children who re-enter care are some of the most vulnerable children in foster care because they have been in the custody of DSS more than once. In 2004, 39% of the children entering foster care in Florence County had previously been in custody. This is a slight increase from 35% in 2003. For children re-entering foster care, the previous location matters. Last year, all of the children re-entering care were in the custody of their parents or another relative.
