

THE REPORT OF THE

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

HENRY McMASTER

INSURANCE FRAUD DIVISION

2007 ANNUAL REPORT

January 2008

MESSAGE FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

I proudly submit the 2007 Annual Report of the South Carolina Insurance Fraud Division. My office has been a leader in the fight against insurance fraud since the inception of our Insurance Fraud Division in 1994. With the help of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, whose agents investigate these insurance fraud cases, we continue the fight against insurance fraud.

Our battle against insurance fraud saw an increase in very important areas. In 2007, our office increased the number of convictions by 15% over 2006. The number of cases disposed of by civil remedy also increased in 2007. We closed 72 cases of insurance fraud by way of a civil fine, which reflects a 47% increase over the number in 2006 (49). By increasing the number of cases ended by both civil and criminal means, my office has sent a message that insurance fraud in this state will be addressed.

In 2007, our office received 712 complaints. The types of fraud reported in these complaints break down as follows: Automobile - 50% (358); Workers' Compensation - 14% (97); Personal/Commercial Property - 13% (94); Health/Medical - 9% (64); Life Insurance - 4% (29); Disability - 4% (28); Other - 3% (24); and Premium Fraud - 3% (18). Our office formally opened 410 complaints in 2007 and referred those cases to SLED for investigation, which was an increase over the cases referred to SLED in 2006 (389).

My office continued to make advances in the fight against insurance fraud in 2007. With the help of law enforcement and our citizens, that fight will continue. I want the people of South Carolina to know that the Office of the Attorney General is dedicated to enforcing the laws against insurance fraud in our state. This report can be found on the web at <http://www.sattorneygeneral.com>.

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF INSURANCE FRAUD

On July 1, 1994, the Governor enacted into law the Omnibus Insurance Fraud and Reporting Immunity Act establishing the Insurance Fraud Division of the Office of the Attorney General and mandating the prosecution of insurance fraud by this new division with the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) conducting the investigations. The intention of the legislation was to aggressively confront the problem of insurance fraud in South Carolina. The Insurance Fraud Division receives referrals from the Department of Insurance, the South Carolina Worker's Compensation Commission, insurance companies, private citizens, law enforcement agencies, as well as attorneys and private law firms throughout the state of South Carolina.

I am pleased with the progress our division demonstrated in 2007. The number of insurance fraud convictions by our office increased by 15%, as we secured a total of 94 convictions as compared to 82 in 2006. We were also able to increase the number of cases we addressed by way of civil remedy. Our office disposed of 72 cases by exacting a fine, which is a 47% increase of the number of civil remedies in 2006 (49). Our ability to prosecute these cases to completion shows the people of South Carolina that this division takes insurance fraud seriously, and sends a message to those who commit fraud that insurance fraud cases will be vigorously pursued.

Our ability to prosecute these cases is dependent on the participation and cooperation of the private insurance industry, which refers many cases to us, and dedicated law enforcement who assist us by investigating those cases. I specifically thank the South Carolina Insurance Fraud Investigators (SCI-FI), and the National Insurance Crime Bureau (NICB) for their efforts.

Attorney General Henry McMaster has been and continues to be a leader in the fight against insurance fraud, and we appreciate his leadership and support. Lieutenant Lansing P. Logan of SLED, his investigators, and staff have the thanks of our office because our fight against insurance fraud depends upon their efforts. I am pleased with the results of our division in 2007, and look forward to an even better year in 2008.

Respectfully Submitted

Jennifer D. Evans
Chief of Prosecution
Director of Insurance Fraud Division
