SCBO NOTICES

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

The University of South Carolina is seeking professional resumes and information from sculptors interested in conceptualizing, sculpting, and coordinating the casting of a bronze sculpture of a Gamecock which is the University's mascot. The sculpture is to be installed on a plaza adjacent to Williams-Brice Stadium.

This large mascot sculpture will mark the entrance to the main gate of the University of South Carolina football stadium and will be part of a sculpture garden reserved for future bronze statues of honored and award winning football student athletes or coaches.

The first bronze sculpture will be the 1980 Heisman trophy winner George Rogers to be unveiled in September of 2015. The bronze Fighting Gamecock mascot is part of approved plans that are currently underway for an exterior revitalization of the football stadium at USC.

Contact Procurement Manager Mac Stiles to obtain a copy of the Request for Information document: mac.stiles@sc.edu, 803-777-6718. The Request for Information document is available online at <http://purchasing.sc.edu/sa.php>.

Information is to be submitted to the University of South Carolina Purchasing Dept. no later than 8/21/2015 at 5:00pm. Information may be delivered in person or electronically. All information is to be prepared in digital format per the specifications of the Request for Information.

Physical Location: 1600 Hampton St, Suite 606, Columbia, SC 29208

Questions related to the Request for Information must be submitted to the buyer in writing and received by 5:00pm on 8/14/2015.

Solicitation No. USC-RFP-WBSGC will be sent to a qualified shortlist of artists after all resumes and provided information has been considered. The formal RFP will not be advertised publicly.
