Director of Insurance

RE: Expiration of Bulletin 2014-02 Emergency Insurance Declaration for South Carolina for Winter Storm

DATE: March 19, 2014

On February 13, 2014, the Department of Insurance issued Bulletin 2014-02 pursuant to S. C. Code Ann. Reg. 69-1 permitting non-resident adjusters to enter the state during the aftermath of the winter storm to adjust claims. This Department determined that an unusual circumstance existed whereby the licensure of temporary non-resident adjusters was necessary to ensure that adjusters would be available to assist with the evaluation and expeditious resolution of claims resulting from the winter storm for South Carolina. The emergency situation that necessitated the declaration no longer exists. Accordingly, this bulletin is issued to notify impacted parties that, effective March 24, 2014, the emergency declaration that was issued via Bulletin 2014-02 will expire. Non-resident adjusters will no longer be able to enter the state without following the requisite state licensing procedures.

Any questions about this bulletin should be directed to the attention of Christine Lanigan by email to clanigan@doi.sc.gov or via telephone to (803) 737-6095.
