SUBMISSION FORM

AGENCY MISSION

The Commission and the Office of Indigent Defense were established by Act 164 of 1993, effective July 1, 1993. The Office operates pursuant to §17-3-310, et seq. of the South Carolina Code of Laws, 1976, as amended. Effective July 1, 2005, the Office of Appellate Defense became a division within the agency.

The Commission on Indigent Defense, through the Office of Indigent Defense and its divisions, and in cooperation and consultation with other state agencies, professional associations and other groups interested in the administration of criminal justice and the improvement and expansion of defender services, establishes and monitors programs and services for legal representation to indigent defendants charged with criminal offenses in the courts of the state. The agency also manages the Rule 608 Contract program, contracting with attorneys across the state to provide representation in criminal and specific family court cases.

The Appellate Defense division of SCCID handles appeals on behalf of indigent clients and consists of a staff of eleven attorneys.

The Capital Trial division within SCCID handles capital cases, statewide, frequently partnering with outside counsel appointed by the court.

The Office of Indigent Defense establishes criteria for determining indigency and qualifications for services, establishes guidelines for court-appointed attorneys in representing indigent clients, and administers distribution of funding for indigent defense. Additionally, the office establishes and supervises training programs for public defenders and staff across the State, and oversees a central reporting system of statistical data in the delivery of indigent defense services.

AGENCY VISION

The SC Commission on Indigent Defense (SCCID) is responsible for ensuring that all individuals are provided indigent defense services in South Carolina and provide the highest quality of representation to our clients.

The SCCID sets and enforces standards, resources and ensures consistency across South Carolina, and to maintain accountability of those persons entrusted with the life and liberty of indigent persons charged with crimes, facing DSS abuse and neglect, Termination of Parental Rights, other Family Court matters, PCR and SVP matters.

AGENCY'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense (SCCID) continued to strengthen and fulfill the mission of our statewide public defender system which was created in 2007. Circuit Public Defenders actively participated in all phases of the legislative budget process and with legislation affecting the state's criminal justice system by attending sub-committee and committee hearings throughout the legislative session. The agency continued to monitor the hiring of additional public defenders and support personnel statewide, with the $6.2 million in new funding that was received during the 2016 legislative session.

SCCID continued quarterly meetings with the Circuit Public Defenders and maintained open communication lines with all. SCCID continued to expand its training program. SCCID successfully conducted its 3rd annual Public Defense 100 training series for new public defenders entering the system from throughout the state. The program consists of three multi-day seminars and workshops focusing on case analysis and trial advocacy. SCCID has also expanded its training to include attorneys, who contract with the agency, to represent indigent clients in cases where the public defender has a conflict. In conjunction with Cornell Law School and The Children's Law Center SCCID offered a seminar for attorneys representing defendants in juvenile life-without-parole cases. Working with the Children's Law Center, SCCID has also begun an ongoing series of training workshops for juvenile defenders. In addition to its ongoing training programs, SCCID will continue to present seminars on new and developing areas in the law to assure that clients receive knowledgeable and effective representation.

The agency entered its 5th year of contracting with private attorneys to handle criminal conflicts, Family Court, PCR and SVP cases, which are awarded on a one-year basis to attorneys throughout the state. This program, which effectively supplants the Rule 608 court-administered program, continues to be highly successful and efficient in moving cases, and continues to receive universal approval from judges, participating attorneys, prosecutors and agencies that are involved. Only the most qualified attorneys are selected for contracts which are awarded by a committee consisting of representatives of the agency, the SC Bar, the Commission and the Circuit Public Defenders. The results of the contract system has been to eliminate calendar conflicts, move the dockets faster, reduce the number of potential appeals and provide quality representation. The agency continued its partnership with the USC Law School's Children's Law Center to co-host, with SCCID, seminars on Family Law issues for contract attorneys and public defenders handling juvenile criminal cases. SCCID fully participates in the Bench and Bar Committee for Family Law and has a well-established cooperative relationship with all interests which are represented on the committee, to include DSS, DJJ, Court Administration, GAL Program, Family Court Judges and other key personnel in the Family Court

In order to meet the State of South Carolina's new standards on cyber security and privacy, SCCID made the decision to migrate our agency servers, data-base and desktop support to the Department of Administration's Division of Technology Office. The migration was done in three phases with a pilot group of employees from each of three program areas moved in phase one. In phase two, our data-base and employees of the administration program were moved over and in the final phase the Appellate Defense program employees were moved over behind the DTO firewall protection. The migration of the IT services will provide SCCID with all the necessary security and support necessary to allow the agency to meet the needs of all the employees as well as the outside users of the voucher systems and database. The agency will be requesting recurring funding for the IT services that are being provided by DTO in the agency's 2018-19 Budget request.

The agency continues to monitor and review its policies and guidelines and their application by service providers, including private investigators, contract attorneys and other counsel appointed by the courts. We have frequently requested hearings, or telephone conferences with judges and counsel to address requests for attorney fee/expert witness fees that exceed caps, policies and guidelines, or to establish an agreement as to caps on fees and experts in many cases. This has resulted in a much more efficient use of limited state resources. While it has taken many years to reach this point, nearly all participants in the system now recognize that the agency does carefully monitor and audit voucher requests for payment of fees and costs that do not appear reasonable. The contract system, because of its flat fee structure, has resulted in a more efficient voucher processing system. Due to this increased efficiency, the agency did not find it necessary to fill a voucher processing position after the position became vacant.

We continue to work very diligently to have municipalities (with optional courts) provide resources for indigent representation, and in a growing number of municipalities, the municipality and the circuit public defender have entered into contracts to do so. The legislature overwhelmingly again approved Proviso 61.12, which requires adequate funding by municipalities that chose to have a municipal court. This continues to fulfill a long term goal of the Commission and the agency, and is a significant achievement in both providing access to justice at the municipal level and having the funding source for it as well.

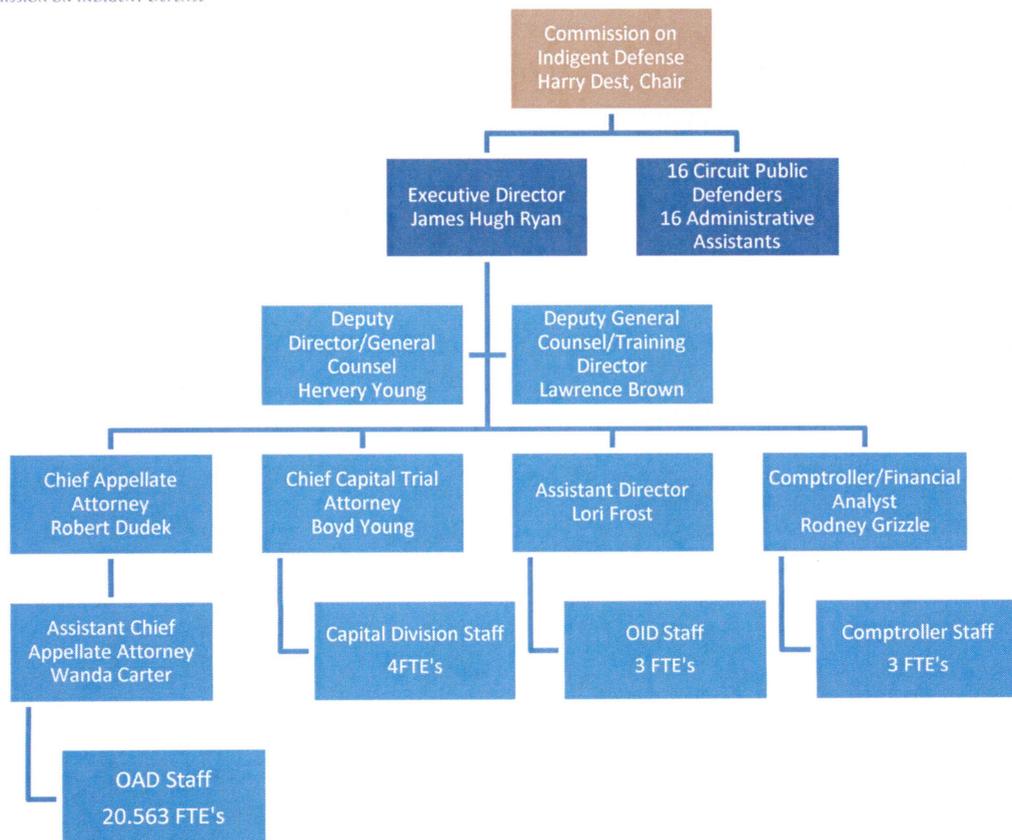

The agency provided staff assistance to public defender members on a variety of issues affecting criminal justice, including legislative issues and issues generated by appellate court rulings. Some of these included law enforcement body camera, docket management, and sentencing reform legislation, supervising the determination of juvenile cases affected by the Byars ruling dealing with resentencing of juveniles sentenced to life without parole. The agency entered into a grant arrangement with the US Department of Justice, Department of Juvenile Justice for updates to the Collateral Consequences booklet to be distributed statewide and to present as a model to the rest of the country in emphasizing the issue of collateral consequences for bad behavior. The Department of Juvenile Justice has engaged the Youth Advisory Council at the Annie E. Casey Foundation to assist with the review of the Collateral Consequences booklet and hope to have the updates completed by October of 2017. Throughout the year the agency worked closely with representatives of DSS, the USC Law School Children's Law Center, and the SC Bar Bench and Bar committee on numerous issues affecting representation of indigent juveniles and related matters.

The agency continued support and program planning and implementation with the SC Public Defender Association and the SC Public Defender Investigator Association for their respective annual training conferences; co-sponsoring with the USC School of Law's Children's Law Center seminars on juvenile issues for both public defenders and private bar contract attorneys; continuation of the highly successful Public Defender Summer Rural Extern Program in partnership with the Charleston School of Law; continuation of its arrangement with the Nelson Mullins law firm to provide pro bono appellate attorneys to assist the agency's appellate division in brief writing and oral arguments of selective cases before the state's appellate courts to help alleviate the crushing caseload that our appellate division must handle.

The position of Comptroller/Financial Analyst, created in July of 2016 and filled in August of 2016 continues to serve a crucial function for the agency. This position provides the agency with an uninterrupted focus on its finances and their sources, which can be very complex to understand and follow, and allows us to pursue financial audits of fee and fine allocations. It has also allowed the Assistant Director position to focus entirely on administrative and personnel matters and supervise voucher processing and payment. All of this has resulted in a much smoother and more cost effective operation of the agency with increased accountability. In addition there is continued publishing of weekly (every Monday) financial reports with year to date and supporting information and side-by-side comparisons over a 4 year history; continued adjustments in agency operational priorities as necessary and close monitoring of fees and fines revenue designated for agency receipt.

The Commission in accordance with Proviso 117.142, has conducted extensive research into the issue of the screening process of those applying for Public Defender Services. We have met with the Chief Justice of the South Carolina Supreme Court, Legislators, court personnel in all 46 counties and numerous others involved in the screening process to develop proposed plans to improve this process and ensure only those truly indigent receive appointed counsel. A report on this issue is due to the legislature on December 1, 2017.
