Trail Descriptions

SANDHILLS HIKING TRAIL

This resurfaced and stroller-friendly trail circles the park's 30-acre lake. Hikers, bikers and joggers will enjoy the sights and sounds of the Sandhills as they venture into the forest and through wetlands on boardwalks.

LENGTH – 2 MILES

SIGNAGE – WHITE DIAMONDS

MOUNTAIN BIKE TRAIL

This multi-use trail is ideal for mountain biking enthusiasts as well as beginners. It is moderate difficulty, so beginners should use caution. Approximately 4 miles of the trail are single track, winding through remote forested areas of the park. Riders will get close-up views of longleaf pines and turkey oaks common in the region.

LENGTH – 6 MILES

SIGNAGE – BLUE DIAMONDS

LOOP TRAIL

This multi-use trail uses an existing roadbed great for joggers, hikers and bikers. See a diverse array of plants and wildlife as you circle through the park's forests and wetlands.

USE CAUTION! Part of this trail is open to vehicles.

LENGTH – 3.5 MILES

SIGNAGE – NONE

JACKSON CREEK NATURE TRAIL

This trail is a short loop through a bottomland forest area, upward into an open pine habitat and ending with a scenic view of Centennial Lake. There are interpretive signs to help you learn about the unique plants and animals that call Sesqui home.
