The South Carolina Department of Health and Human Services (SCDHHS) was created in 1984 to administer the Medicaid program (Title XIX of the Social Security Act). - Doctor visits
- Hospital Care
- Medical transportation
- Prescription Drugs
- Family Planning Services
- Emergency Room Services

All medical services must be necessary and some services are limited.

When should you apply? If you are pregnant, you should apply as soon as you learn that you are pregnant. If you are applying for children's services, you should apply as soon as possible after the child's birth

Where should you apply? You may apply for Medicaid at your county Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS). Check the services listed under your county of residence in this directory for more information.

MEDICAID - OCWI

What information should you bring to apply?

When you apply for Medicaid, you will be asked to provide the following information:

- Proof of your income
- Your Social Security Card
- A pregnancy statement from your doctor
- Proof of child support/alimony payments
- Health insurance policy or ID card

If you cannot get this information, the Department of Health and Human Services or the person who takes your application, is required to assist you.

Even if you have private insurance, Medicaid may pay for services that your insurance does not cover. For more information, call your county health and human services department or look under the listing of services offered in your county as found in this directory.

ADOPTION

One of the options or choices that is available to you and the baby's father is to place your child up for adoption. Adoption is the legal process by which permanent custody of a child is transferred from birth parents to adoptive parents.

The Division of Adoption Services at DSS or other licensed adoption agencies can help you. For more information, call the DSS state office at (803) 898-7318 or 1-888-CARE-4-US (227-3487) or check the services listed for your county of residence in this directory. At licensed adoption agencies, you will receive helpful, supportive services. You will be counseled about what is best for you, your baby and your family. You may have a part in the adoptive parent/family selection process. The final decision about adoption is yours to make, and the information you share with an agency is confidential.

At the DSS Division of Adoption Services, counseling services are free and may include the baby's father. You may receive help with hospital expenses and maternity home fees. Your questions will be answered.

CHILD SUPPORT IN SOUTH CAROLINA

The South Carolina Department of Social Services' (DSS) Child Support Enforcement Division (CSED) provides services to obtain child support money. These services include finding the parent who is not supporting the child, establishing and enforcing child support orders and establishing the identity of the father. Problems about property, custody and visitation cannot be handled by the CSED.

Who Can Get Help? Anyone who has custody of a child and who needs help in getting support payments may apply for services. Non-custodial parents may apply to have paternity established or to have their support order reviewed.

What is the Application Process? Persons applying for or receiving help under the Temporary Aid for Needy Families (TANF) program automatically receive child support enforcement services. Those not receiving TANF must complete an application form (there is a $25.00 fee). Applications are available at county DSS offices, and the county clerk court offices. You may also call CSED at (803) 898-9210 or 1-800-768-5858.

For more information, please check the services listed under your county of residence in this directory.
