

SOUTH CAROLINA PLANTS THE SEED

SC Plants the Seed is a free, family-centered program that is improving literacy and access to healthy food.

Join us at the library for:

- Healthy food & recipes
- Free books
- Arts & crafts

SC Plants the Seed is a partnership between our library, Department of Health and Environmental Control, South Carolina State Library, Department of Social Services, and local farmers.

