

DON'T STOP READING WHEN THE PRINT GETS TOO SMALL!

The South Carolina State
Library's Talking Book
Services can help.

CALL 1-800-922-7818

If you have difficulty reading printed materials because of a visual impairment, you are eligible to use the SC State Library's Talking Book
Program.

Our LARGE PRINT collection contains over 15,000 copies of bestsellers, biographies, romances, mysteries, and much more.

South Carolina
Talking Book
 Services

www.statelibrary.sc.gov/tbs

South Carolina

Talking Book

Services

www.statelibrary.sc.gov/tbs

THERE'S MORE THAN ONE WAY TO READ A BOOK!

South Carolinians who are unable to read or use standard printed materials due to blindness, low vision, lack of muscle coordination, prolonged weakness, or physically based reading disabilities (such as dyslexia) are eligible to participate. Audio books, recorded magazines, and Braille are also available.

CALL 1-800-922-7818

SC Talking Book Services is a program of

south carolina
STATE LIBRARY