

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, architects express the richness of our nation's heritage and the vitality of its spirit, combining advances in building technology with design innovation to enliven our cities and communities and improve our quality of life; and

WHEREAS, the architecture profession in South Carolina is conscientious in its stewardship of many of the Palmetto State's architectural and historic treasures; and

WHEREAS, the members of the American Institute of Architects, South Carolina Chapter are dedicated to building healthy, safe, livable, and sustainable communities that enrich the lives of people in every walk of life; and

WHEREAS, April 13, 2007, marks the 150th anniversary of the American Institute of Architects.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 9 - 14, 2007, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to honor our architects and recognize the positive role they play in our continued economic prosperity.
