Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, engineering facilitates progress in important areas, including technology, communications, manufacturing, energy, defense, and the environment, while advancing understanding of the world around us; and

WHEREAS, the more than 7,000 registered engineers in South Carolina are dedicated to enriching our state through their work in construction, education, government, industry, and private practice; and

WHEREAS, through their integral involvement in the design, construction, and maintenance of our built environment, these engineers help ensure a strong infrastructure to accommodate new industry, homes, communities, schools, and churches; and

WHEREAS, the 2005 observance of Engineers Week provides an opportunity to recognize our engineering community, its members, and their many achievements.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim February 20 - 26, 2005, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to honor our engineers for their many contributions to our quality of life.
