

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, arising from a grist mill on a man-made pond, the Town of Lake View was originally incorporated as Page's Mill on February 26, 1907; and

WHEREAS, in 1916, the residents of Page's Mill voted to change the name to Lake View; and

WHEREAS, located in eastern Dillon County, Lake View offers the benefits of small-town living, southern hospitality, and caring people in a serene, rural setting; and

WHEREAS, this year, the Town of Lake View is celebrating its 100th Anniversary with events including special school activities, class reunions, a car show, a parade, display of old farm equipment, and a community church service.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim February 26, 2007, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to join together in wishing the Town of Lake View all the best for a great centennial celebration.

TOWN OF LAKE VIEW 100TH ANNIVERSARY DAY

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read "Mark Sanford". The signature is fluid and cursive, written in a dark ink on a white background.

MARK SANFORD
GOVERNOR
STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA