

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Salvation Army is an international service network with more than 15,000 Corps speaking 175 languages in 109 countries; and

WHEREAS, for almost a century the Salvation Army has been assisting the needy in the Columbia area; and

WHEREAS, working daily to feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, treat the addicted, and befriend the friendless, the Salvation Army serves over 100,000 people in the midlands area yearly; and

WHEREAS, starting a new year with a new facility, the Columbia Salvation Army remains committed to improving the lives of the residents of the Palmetto State who need it most.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim June 14 – 19, 2004, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the Salvation Army for its contributions to an improved quality of life for the people of our state.
