

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, founded in Greenville in 1932, the South Carolina Motor Carriers Association was incorporated in 1933 and, at that time, changed its name to the Motor Transportation Association of South Carolina, Incorporated; and

WHEREAS, over the years, the South Carolina Trucking Association has grown from a few trucking companies to over 700 present-day companies with more than 100,000 trucks on the roads across our state and nation; and

WHEREAS, trucks serve all areas of the Palmetto State and play a major role in transporting food, clothing and other items to stores, delivering necessary medicines and diagnostic equipment to hospitals and clinics, and ensuring that raw materials and intermediate products for consumer goods are delivered to the assembly line safely; and

WHEREAS, the South Carolina Trucking Association is celebrating its 75th Anniversary during the 2008 annual conference.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim June 12 - 15, 2008, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the South Carolina Trucking Association on the occasion of its 75th Anniversary.
