LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL
from
THE SOUTH CAROLINA STATE LIBRARY BOARD

December 28, 1947

To His Excellency, the Honorable J. Strom Thurmond, Governor of South Carolina, and to the Honorable Members of the General Assembly of South Carolina:

DEAR SIRS:

We have the honor to transmit the report of the South Carolina State Library Board for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1947.

The objective of the State Library Board is a network of county and regional library systems extending over the entire State and making books easily accessible to every person in South Carolina.

For efficient and economical library service, it is important that the county library and all other libraries within a given county combine to form one functional unit. "Somehow the small library must be made to understand that instead of losing its identity, it is entering into a partnership which will pay greatly increased dividends in service and satisfaction."

And the small, sparsely settled adjacent counties of South Carolina must be convinced that for each such group to unite for regional library service will increase the efficiency of its book service at a lower per capita cost.

In appropriating funds annually beginning with 1943 for library development, The General Assembly of South Carolina set in motion incalculable forces for progress. In a democratic society books should be available to every individual.

The response in interest and effort is gratifying. The opposition to consolidation of all libraries within a county into one functional unit diminishes. And the interest in regional libraries is on the increase.

But much remains to be done in order that the rural residents of the counties of least per capita wealth shall have book service and that more adequate reading service be available in all counties.

Your consideration is requested for the facts in the annual report, which follows, of Miss Estellene P. Walker, Executive Secretary of the State Library Board.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY E. FRAYSER, Chairman

"Books should be carried into the home. Standing libraries signify little in this country where Persons must ride miles to look into a Book. There should be Lending Libraries which come home to 'em without charge." Library Rules, Charles Town Commissioners, 1698.

Libraries in South Carolina have made much progress during the year. Three new county libraries have been established and citizens in six other counties are engaged in a campaign to establish countywide library service. Wherever it exists, the free public library in the state is serving as a "people's university." It is the best means of self-education that is available. The public library is promoting good citizenship through stimulating public opinion. Modern business, industry, agriculture and the professions throughout the state are depending on the public libraries for resource material and for reference. The library is an important element in the community's program of worthwhile activities for children and youth. In every county in the state, people are reading more than ever before and are looking to the public library to supply them with material on every subject. The thirty-one county libraries in South Carolina are straining every resource at their command to meet this call for increased service.

State Aid to Public Libraries has been of vital service in improving existing libraries and making possible the establishment of new county libraries. Libraries in 31 South Carolina counties participated in the state aid program of the State Library Board during 1946-47. Twelve county libraries received cash allotments and eighteen county libraries serving nineteen counties received the equivalent of the allotment in books. Fifteen counties are still without countywide library systems and in the majority of these, deposits of books were loaned to communities and many loans of books were made to individuals. The services of the State Library Board were available to any resident or group in the state either through interlibrary loans or through direct service where no public library was accessible. The services of the staff were always available to libraries needing advice or to groups interested in the establishment and organization of libraries.

Of the $25,000 appropriated for 1946-47, $15,033.00 was returned directly to the counties as state aid to public libraries or for books for loans to individuals or communities without countywide library service. 4,741 books were added during the year, bringing the total number purchased with state appropriated funds to 15,997.

STATE AID

State Aid to public libraries has been the deciding factor in the success of the State Library Board’s program of library extension. In 1943 when the State Library Board began to function as the library extension agency of the state, the WPA library program had just been discontinued. Many of the county libraries which had been established under WPA were on the verge of folding up. State Aid that first year was only $1200.00, but it kept many libraries in operation which would otherwise have been closed. In the years that followed, State Aid not only encouraged libraries to continue operation, it was also basic to the establishment of new libraries. Today, after only four years of State Aid, 31 counties have countywide library service. Of the fifteen counties still without this service, eight are actively engaged in campaigns to establish countywide library service. This year’s State Aid allotment was $325.00 per county. The cash allotment was made directly to those county libraries which were well established and employ a professional librarian. For the smaller county libraries, in charge of non-professional personnel, the State Library Board as an additional service purchased, processed and delivered books in the equivalent of $325.00. The books were delivered to the county libraries completely ready for circulation. This is a service much appreciated by the smaller county libraries.

BOOK DEPOSIT SERVICE FROM THE STATE LIBRARY BOARD
Summer orthopedic camps operated by the State Board of Health borrow collections of children's books from the State Library Board to be used by the young campers.
COMMUNITY DEPOSITS

One of the most valued services of the State Library Board is the community deposit service. Any community in the fifteen counties still without countywide library service and any state institution which will provide housing and arrange for the care and circulation of the books, may borrow from the State Library Board deposits of books ranging in size from one hundred to two hundred books. The books are carefully chosen to fit the needs of the community or institution. Books for children as well as books for adults are provided. The deposits are delivered and changed for fresh collections every three months by a librarian from the staff of the State Library Board.

Communities taking advantage of this service:
- Chesterfield County—Chesterfield, Cheraw, McBee, Pageland.
- Edgefield County—Edgefield and Johnston.
- Clarendon County—Manning, New Zion, Paxville, Sardinia, Summerton.
- Dorchester County—Harleyville, St. George.
- Lexington County—Lexington.
- Saluda County—Saluda.
- Jasper County—Hardeeville, Ridgeland, Gillisonville, Tillman.

State institutions using this service:
- State Hospital
- Opportunity School
- State Penitentiary
- Summer Orthopedic Camps for Children
- Area Trade School

LOANS TO INDIVIDUALS

A man from Clarendon County writes: “Please renew Outline of History for another month. Weather has been so good for plowing, haven't had time to finish my reading.”

A child in Oconee County sent in a card requesting “Pig With a Straight Tail,” remarking, “I liked that book and want little brother to read it.” A woman in Saluda returns her books and wants more by return mail, saying, “There has been some illness in the family and I need cheering up.” These are just a few samples of the many requests for books which the State Library Board receives and fills every month. These loans to individuals are made in the fifteen counties still without countywide library service. The only expense to the borrower is the return postage.
A reader who uses the "Direct Loans to Individuals" service from the State Board. This little girl lives in Oconee County which does not have countywide library service. For three years she has been getting books by mail from the State Board.
INTERLIBRARY LOANS

The State Library Board performs a valuable service for all public libraries in the state through serving as a clearing house for interlibrary loans of books and materials. It would be impossible even if it were practical for every library in the state to stock all the books and materials called for by the reader. Few libraries in the state can afford to maintain a comprehensive collection on such highly technical subjects as textiles, electronics, and law. It is much more economical for the library to borrow the books and materials needed on specialized subjects. The State Library Board arranges and makes such loans between libraries. 160 loans of this type were completed during the year. Others were referred to libraries where the material requested could be secured.

AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

Federal Relations Committee

The Federal Relations Committee of the South Carolina Library Association, in cooperation with the Federal Relations Office of the American Library Association, has worked for two years on local support for national legislative measures affecting libraries. The state committee was organized to develop citizen and library support for the program of the National Relations Office. The following are members of the committee: Mrs. A. M. Wylie, Jr., Chester, Co-ordinator; Mrs. Frances Lander Spain, President of the South Carolina Library Association, Winthrop College, Rock Hill; Miss Estellene P. Walker, Executive Secretary, State Library Board.

PUBLIC LIBRARY DEMONSTRATION BILL

The first and major objective of the Federal Relations Committee is to secure support for the Library Demonstration Bill (HR 2465; S 48), which provides:

1. $25,000 per year for five years outright grant to each state for rural library demonstration.

2. $25,000 to $75,000 per year for five years in addition if the state legislature appropriates funds for state aid to match increased federal allotments.
3. No danger of federal control. All decisions as to policy and plans using funds are decided within the state.

At present the Library Demonstration Bill S. 48 has been reported favorably by committee and is now on the Senate calendar. HR 2465, identical with S. 48, is in committee.

SIXTY-SIXTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The sixty-sixth annual conference of the American Library Association was held June 29-July 5, 1947, in San Francisco, California. The theme of the conference was “A Moratorium on Trivia.” Librarians from 24 countries attended the conference.

South Carolina was represented by eight librarians, including the Executive Secretary of the State Library Board, the State Supervisor of School Libraries and the State Librarian.

Miss Mary E. Frayser, Chairman of the State Library Board and 1947 winner of the A. L. A. Trustee Citation for outstanding service to the libraries of South Carolina.
LIBRARY TRUSTEES

On July 3rd at the meeting of the American Library Association in San Francisco, Miss Mary E. Frayser, Chairman of the South Carolina State Library Board, was awarded the Trustee Citation, the greatest honor that can come to the trustee of any American Library. The award was presented at the Third General Session by Miss Mary U. Rothrock and was accepted by Miss Estellene Walker in Miss Frayser's absence. The text of the citation is as follows:

SOUTHEASTERN STATES LIBRARY SURVEY

The South Carolina Library Association has accepted the invitation of the Tennessee Valley Library Council to join the seven Valley States (Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia) in a self-survey of library facilities and needs.
The Tennessee Valley Library Council is composed of representatives of university, public and school library interests at the state level, the presidents of the library associations of these seven states, representatives of the Tennessee Valley Authority, The American Library Association and the United States Office of Education, about 40-50 persons in all. Several meetings of the Council have been held during the past five years at which matters of concern to libraries in the region were discussed. From the first it has been apparent that there is a dearth of accurate information about library facilities and the little that is known indicates serious deficiencies in support, in buildings, in personnel, and in books.

The Tennessee Valley Authority has contracted with the Council to conduct the study in order:

1. To secure a reasonably accurate picture of library facilities and needs in the region; and
2. To plan and initiate coordinated programs of action which will lead to the improvement of conditions throughout the area.

The TVA will provide funds for a two-year period for a central office, the Director's salary and a travel allowance. The library associations of the nine participating states have agreed to be responsible for collecting and reporting data in their respective states and to that end have each set up a state survey committee. The study is being coordinated under an overall executive committee of which Dr. Louis R. Wilson is chairman and there is also an advisory committee of seven, representing the states.

The South Carolina Committee for the Survey of Libraries in this State is composed of the following:

Chairman—Mr. W. P. Kellam, Librarian, University of South Carolina; Miss Nancy Day, School Library Supervisor, Department of Education; Miss Ellen Perry, Librarian, Greenville Public Library; Mrs. Frances Lander Spain, Librarian, Winthrop College; Miss Estelleine P. Walker, Executive Secretary, South Carolina State Library Board; Miss Catherine Jones, Veterans Hospital Librarian, Columbia; Miss Emily Copeland, Director, Department of Library Science, A. & M. College, Orangeburg.
LIBRARY PROGRESS DURING THE YEAR

South Carolina has made remarkable progress during the year in the establishment of new libraries and the improvement of existing libraries.

The 1947 General Assembly passed an Act creating the Spartanburg County Library and levying a one mill tax for library support. This is a consolidated library system which is the direct result of a demonstration of rural library service sponsored and financed by the Spartanburg Junior Charity League.

The libraries in Kershaw County were consolidated under the Kershaw County Library which serves both Camden and the rural districts.

LIBRARY BUILDING PROGRAM

The Horry County Memorial Library Commission was established by Act of the General Assembly and $125,000 provided for the establishment of countywide library service and the construction of a library building as a memorial to all the men and women of Horry County who have served in World War I and II. Plans for the building are now complete and construction will begin shortly. The plans represent the best in recent library buildings and the completed building will be of interest to all South Carolinians.

The Town of Easley in Pickens County has begun construction on a new library building to cost $38,000. This building will house the Pickens County Library.

Orangeburg County has begun construction on a new library building which will serve the negroes of the town and the county. This library will be operated as a branch of the Orangeburg County Library.

The town of Cheraw in Chesterfield County is conducting a campaign to raise funds for the construction of a new library building.

The town of Clover in York County is to construct a library building next year.

Kershaw in Lancaster County has plans and will begin construction of a library building within the year.
Charleston County secured an appropriation of $15,000 for the new Cooper River District Memorial Library. The Suburban Jaycees had already raised $9,000 for the building. $10,000 was appropriated for a new branch library building for Mt. Pleasant.

Georgetown County Library secured an appropriation of $50,000 for the renovation of an old building.
