WHEREAS, despite continuing advances in technology, millions of people around the world lack sufficient food, and many more are malnourished; and

WHEREAS, the lack of energy and key nutrients caused by malnutrition makes it difficult for individuals to sustain healthy, active lives and often results in illness or death; and

WHEREAS, “World Food Day” calls attention to hunger and its causes while encouraging us to search together for possible solutions and creative ways to ensure food security for all.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 16, 2005, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to work together in the struggle against hunger, malnutrition and poverty.

MARK SANFORD
GOVERNOR
STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
