

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, individual and organized forms of recreation and the use of leisure time are vital to the lives of all Americans, especially persons with physical, mental, emotional and/or social limitations; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of therapeutic recreation is to assist in eliminating barriers to leisure, developing leisure skills and attitudes, and optimizing leisure involvement; and

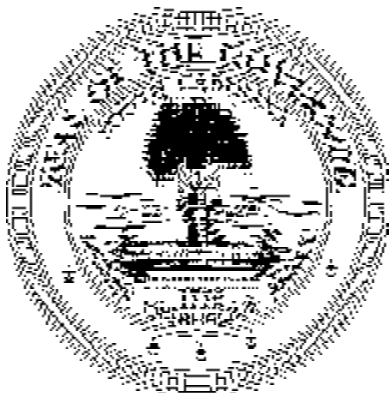

WHEREAS, hospitals, rehabilitation centers, adult day care centers, residential facilities, nursing homes, and community recreation agencies provide therapeutic recreation services for millions of individuals throughout South Carolina and the nation who have disabilities or other limitations; and

WHEREAS, National Therapeutic Recreation Week focuses on the value of recreation and leisure experiences for all people as a means to improving our well-being and quality of life.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim July 6 – 12, 2003, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the positive health benefits of leisure and recreation.
