

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, sexual assault affects every adult and child in South Carolina, as a victim survivor or as a family member, loved one, friend, neighbor or coworker of a victim; and

WHEREAS, sexual assault is one of the most devastating crimes in our society today, with victims often suffering lifelong pain from physical injury and serious emotional trauma; and

WHEREAS, volunteers and service providers in our communities are dedicated to providing care to sexual assault survivors through 24-hour hotlines, counseling, support groups, advocacy, medical care, and education; and

WHEREAS, the 2004 observance of Sexual Assault Awareness Month encourages people to get involved and to work together to reduce sexual violence.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 2004 as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to join together to prevent sexual assault and ensure a life free from harm for the residents of the Palmetto State.
