Keeping in Tune with the TBS Advisory Council

The TBS Advisory Council met on October 15, 2008. We were pleased to have as our guest Judith Dixon, Consumer Relations Officer from the Library of Congress in Washington, DC.

Judy Dixon met with the Advisory Council to give an update on the progress of the digital transition, demonstrate the new player, and to suggest how the Advisory Council can assist the State Library in this new and exciting time.

Dixon said, "It is important for an Advisory Council to stay focused on why you are here and what is an appropriate role for your group...Talking Book Libraries now more than ever will need the Advisory Council's support and advice as we transition into this new format."

The Advisory Council is a sounding board for library planning, priorities, policies, program efforts and service concerns. They are a group of concerned, dedicated people that generously give of their time to serve. Marty McKenzie is the chairperson for the council.

The Advisory Council meets quarterly and the next scheduled meeting is slated for January 2009.

DIGITAL TRANSITION UPDATE

In the Spring of 2009, Talking Book Services will begin the process of transitioning from the 4-track cassette tapes to the digital format. Bear in mind that Talking Books on cassette will continue to be made available for the near future. It is recommended that patrons have both the digital talking book machine as well as a cassette book machine initially, as many of the existing cassette books will not be available digitally.

First preference in receiving the digital players will be to veterans and then to those patrons 100 years of age or older. Talking Books Services is currently compiling a list of patrons who are interested in receiving a digital player. Please contact Talking Books at (800)-922-7818 or email tbsbooks@statelibrary.sc.gov to have your name added to the distribution list. Those who have already called and inquired about the digital player are on the list. Initially NLS will be distributing the players to each network library in limited quantities; therefore getting the new player into the hands of all patrons interested will take time.

All patrons must be in good standing with the library in order to receive the new digital player. Good standing is defined as: returns library materials on time; asks for renewals when more time is needed; returns machines when repairs are needed; responds to overdue notices by either returning the materials or informing us of an error in our records; and informs the library of address and telephone number changes. If you have questions about your account status, contact the library.

New Books from the Recording Booth

Three books were recently recorded by our volunteers. Please call the library to request the newest additions to the S.C. Collection.

CBC 485 Freedom's Child: The Life of a Confederate General's Black Daughter by Carrie Allen McCray

In 1875, Malinda Rice, a black teenager working in the household of retired Virginia brigadier general John R. Jones, gave birth to his daughter, Mary. The married general bucked Southern tradition by not only publicly acknowledging Mary but also financing her college education. The author, Malinda's granddaughter, unearths her family's long-buried secrets in a quest to understand her mother's rich tumultuous life. Narrated by Marjorie Hammock.

CBC 487 Baroness of Hobcaw: The Life of Belle W. Baruch by Mary E. Miller

Belle W. Baruch (1899-1964), was the daughter of Wall Street tycoon Bernard Baruch. This book details her life in the South Carolina Lowcountry, New York, and Europe where she traveled extensively and socialized with many famous politicians, entertainers and entrepreneurs. Unapologetic for her athleticism and interests in traditionally masculine pursuits, she is known today for the wildlife conservation and biological research center on the South Carolina coast that bears her family name. Narrated by Patricia Voelker.

CBC 488 Deep in the Heart: A Memoir of Love and Longing by Sheila Morris

The author's story of growing up in the 1950s in small-town Texas in a colorful and loving family while nursing a dark and aching secret: she will never grow up to be the daughter and granddaughter her family wants her to be. Narrated by Sheila Morris.
