Ernest F. Hollings, South Carolina's 80th Governor, was born in Charleston, January 1, 1922, the son of Adolph and Wilhelmine Meyer Hollings.

On March 30, 1946, he married Patricia Salley of Columbia and they have three children, Michael Milhous, Helen Hayne and Patricia Salley.

He was graduated from The Citadel, Class of 1942, and has practiced law in Charleston since graduating from the University of South Carolina Law School in 1947.

Governor Hollings is a veteran of World War II, serving 33 months overseas with the United States Army.

He first offered for public office in 1948 and was elected to the House of Representatives, leading a field of more than 20 candidates. In 1950 and 1952 he was re-elected, each time leading the field. He was unanimously elected Speaker Pro Tempore of the House of Representatives in 1951 and 1953.

In 1954 he was elected Lieutenant Governor, carrying 45 of the state's 46 counties. In 1958 he was elected Governor, defeating two opponents and receiving more than 190,000 votes in the second Primary.

In 1955 Governor Hollings served as a member of the Task Force investigating intelligence activities of agencies of the United States Government.

Governor Hollings is a Lutheran, a member of the Board of Pensions of the United Lutheran Church of America and a trustee of Newberry College. He is a Mason and has served as State Chairman of the United Fund, the Mental Health Fund and the March of Dimes.
Burnet R. Maybank was born in Charleston, S. C. May 2, 1924, the son of the late Burnet Rhett and Elizabeth deR. Maybank.

He was educated in the public schools of Charleston and Columbia and was graduated from the Episcopal High School in Alexandria, Virginia. Prior to World War II he attended The Citadel, leaving to serve as an enlisted man and an officer from 1942 to 1946 in the U. S. Army Air Force. While serving in the European Theatre of operations, he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

In 1950 he graduated from the University of South Carolina with Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Law degrees, and since then has resided in Greenville where he has been engaged in the practice of law.
He is married to the former Marion Mitchell of Charleston and they have two children, Marion and Burnet, Jr. He is a member of Christ Episcopal Church and is on the vestry of St. John's Episcopal Church. He is a Mason, Shriner and a member of the Sertoma Civic Club.

He first ran for public office in 1952 and was elected a member of the House of Representatives from Greenville County, leading the ticket of 29 candidates. He was re-elected in 1954 and 1956, each time by a larger percentage of votes. While a member of the House, he served on the Judiciary Committee, as well as on several other special committees. He has also been elected as a delegate from Greenville County to the 1954 and 1956 State Democratic Conventions. In 1956 he served on the Special States Rights Resolution Committee, which had as its purpose the uniting of all states interested in such sentiments.

On June 11, 1958, he was nominated Lieutenant-Governor in the first primary over two opponents.
PERSONNEL—Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Adjutant General, Treasurer, Controller General, State Superintendent of Education, Secretary of State, Attorney General and Commissioner of Agriculture (1952 Civil Code, Sec. 1-1), all of whom are created by the Constitution except the last named, and that by statute.
