Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 11:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

John 15:13

“Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one’s life for one’s friend.”

Let us pray. Gracious God, As we honor You this day in prayer we also remember those among us and before us that fought for our freedom and our survival. The pages of history are red with the blood of heroes who fell and died on our behalf. Help us to always remember that life is sacred and that our freedom was achieved at a very high cost by the thousands that served before us. We also remember and pray for those who in their service to our country sustained severe injuries -- loss of limbs, eyesight, mobility and cognitive skills. May we as a State and a nation remember to support these wounded heroes as they continue to fight personal battles with health, work and family concerns. Gracious Lord, give our leaders in these difficult days special wisdom and discernment to not ever fight foolish wars but only to put our military men and women in harm’s way when the cause is clearly just and our very survival is at stake. These matters we humble place before You, O God, knowing that You and You alone can reach into the conscience of our nation to make honorable decisions of this magnitude. In Your holy name we pray, Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.
