AGENCY’S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

SCDPS VISION AND VALUES

The South Carolina Department of Public Safety’s (SCDPS, department, or agency) vision is to ensure that this agency is setting the standard for public safety excellence as a cohesive team by making South Carolina a safer place to live, work, and visit through protection, education, and service. Embedded within SCDPS’ efforts and initiatives to serve the public are the agency’s core values: Integrity, Excellence, Accountability, and Leadership.

EXTERNAL FACTORS AFFECTING AGENCY PERFORMANCE

Recent events around the country involving law enforcement officials and civilians have affected the agency’s law enforcement staffing levels from the front end by negatively influencing the public’s general perception of law enforcement. According to a June 2-7, 2015 Gallup Poll, 52% of the general public surveyed has “a great deal” or “quite a lot” of confidence in law enforcement—the lowest this percentage has been since 1993. This public perception has deterred once-interested candidates from joining law enforcement and has affected SCDPS’ candidate pool. This has resulted in smaller training classes and lower staffing levels.

SCDPS relies heavily on staffing levels and manpower to enforce and uphold State and Federal laws, provide and maintain security, and work to reduce traffic fatalities. Throughout Fiscal Year 2016, the agency was required to re-allocate enforcement resources to address external factors including:

- Aftermath of the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal (AME) Church shooting in Charleston (June 17, 2015);
- Removal of Confederate Flag from State House Grounds (July 10, 2015) and associated Black Panther and KKK Rallies;
- South Carolina’s “1,000 Year Flood” (October 2, 2015 - October 9, 2015) and subsequent aftermath; and
- Bike rallies (May 13, 2016-May 22, 2016 and May 27, 2016-May 30, 2016)

INTERNAL FACTORS AFFECTING AGENCY PERFORMANCE

SCDPS has faced an ongoing struggle deriving from the law enforcement personnel salaries and compensation. The agency implemented a revised pay scale on September 17, 2015 to attract the most highly qualified applicants. While this revised pay plan addressed immediate concerns of making SCDPS more competitive from a recruiting standpoint, SCDPS must strive to keep law enforcement salaries competitive with local (city, county, etc.) or regional law enforcement agencies. This inequity impacts not only the agency’s ability to attract and recruit the best applicants but also has a negative effect on retention as law enforcement officers progress in their careers. In addition, without the means to fund a salary career path that compensates officers for experience beyond five years, knowledge, or skills, SCDPS struggles to retain experienced officers.

AGENCY’S ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The ultimate standard by which SCDPS measures its accomplishments is the success the agency has achieved in maintaining consistent reductions in serious injury crashes and fatal crashes during the period from 2007 to 2016 despite significant staffing losses, largely due to budget cuts, over the same period. It should also be noted that, during this time and with the same diminished resources, the department positively impacted safety belt compliance through its education and enforcement initiatives. These successes are clearly attributable to SCDPS management’s commitment to effectively allocating limited resources and its employees’ dedication to achieving the collective goal of Target Zero.

Not only did SCDPS law enforcement personnel respond quickly and effectively throughout the course of the events identified as external factors, they were able to plan, monitor, and adjust to these circumstances in a cohesive and efficient way. For example, SCDPS troopers and officers supplemented Charleston’s local law enforcement divisions during the aftermath of the AME church shooting as they worked jointly to provide support and a visible police presence during public gatherings and demonstrations.

SCDPS’ Bureau of Protective Services division, supported by SCDPS’ other law enforcement divisions, organized responses to major demonstrations and events at the South Carolina State House during the Confederate Flag removal.

SCDPS law enforcement personnel worked tirelessly around the clock during the “1,000 Year Flood” to not only ensure the safety of countless South Carolinians, but partnered with the South Carolina Department of Transportation (SCDOT) in the following weeks to provide accurate roadway data to ensure SCDOT could provide engineering and resources to respond to roadway damage accordingly.

Lastly, hundreds of Highway Patrol troopers assisted local authorities in patrolling Myrtle Beach for the 2016 Bike rallies to enforce roadway safety laws and ensure participant safety.

SCDPS’ ability to manage the outside factors above while continuing to successfully strive toward the agency’s mission strongly suggests that SCDPS’ methodologies are effective. SCDPS was able to continually make advancements by incorporating highway safety campaigns and educational initiatives such as:

- Target Zero
- Rest Area Safety Events
- Wait 2 Text
- Hands Across the Border
- LOOK Pedestrian/Motorcycle Safety
- State Transport Police’s
“Operation Safe Drive on I-85/I-95”
- Hurricane Lane Reversal Exercises
- Prom Safety Talks
- Buckle Up SC
- Sober or Slammer
- Target Zero Team
- Be A Santa (“Sober All Night Totally Awesome” Designated Driver)

During the week of April 11, 2016, a team of assessors with the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA ®) examined all aspects of the agency’s policies and procedures, administration, operations and support services. For the first time, SCDPS participated in the Gold Standard Assessment (GSA), which focused primarily on processes and outcomes associated with standards specific to agency policies. The GSA works to measure the impact of accreditation as opposed to simply confirming compliance through a file-by-file review. On July 30, 2016, in Baltimore, Maryland, SCDPS was awarded its seventh re-accreditation.

During FY 2016, the agency was also able to provide training to both sworn and civilian personnel in regard to active shooter responses. This training addressed proactive measures in identifying suspicious behavior, response tactics, exit plans, and safety precautions in an active shooter situation.

The following charts and graphs quantify the agency’s progress towards its overall mission:

POSSIBLE NEGATIVE IMPACT IF AGENCY GOALS ARE NOT MET

Goal 1: Enhance Public/Officer Safety

The inability of the department to provide a safe environment in which to travel throughout the state would result in an increased level of traffic collisions and fatalities, which result in emotional pain, lost income, higher insurance rates, and other economic loss. A reduction in officer safety places the officers in danger, inflicts physical and emotional pain, and induces financial inefficiencies through turnover.

Goal 2: Professional Development and Workforce Planning

Failing to attract, recruit, and retain a professional workforce may compromise the department’s mission to provide professional services, enforce traffic laws, and save lives. By not reducing trainee turnover, more state and taxpayer funds are being spent in an attempt to attract, hire, and retain officers. Failure to train the workforce has a negative effect on work performance and results in employee turnover and ineffective customer service. In addition, without the means to fund a salary career path that compensates officers for experience beyond five years, knowledge, or skills, SCDPS struggles to retain experienced officers.

Goal 3: Appropriate Use of Information and Technology

Inappropriate use of technology could result in poor customer service and higher costs to conduct business. SCDPS relies on computerized information systems to carry out its operations; process, maintain, and report essential information; transmit proprietary and other sensitive information; develop and maintain intellectual capital; conduct operations; process business transactions; transfer funds; and deliver services. In addition, the Internet has grown increasingly important, developing into an extended

AGENCY NAME:	South Carolina Department of Public Safety
AGENCY CODE:	K050	SECTION:	63

information and communications infrastructure that supports the SCDPS services to the public. Ineffective protection of these information systems and networks can result in a failure to deliver these vital services and result in loss or theft of computer resources, assets, and funds; inappropriate access to and disclosure, modification, or destruction of sensitive information, such as Criminal Justice Information, Personal Identifying Information, and proprietary business information; disruption of essential operations supporting critical infrastructure and emergency services; undermining of agency missions due to embarrassing incidents that erode the public’s confidence in SCDPS; use of computer resources for unauthorized purposes or to launch attacks on other systems; damage to networks and equipment; and high costs for remediation.

Goal 4: Quality Customer Service Delivery

If SCDPS fails to adequately educate, inform, or respond to information needs of the public, the public’s ability to safely travel throughout the state would be compromised.

OUTSIDE HELP NECESSARY FOR MITIGATION

The overwhelming majority of possible incidents discussed above could be mitigated with additional funding appropriated to the agency through recurring and core budget funds.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OPTIONS

Possible options for the General Assembly to consider would be to provide the agency with:

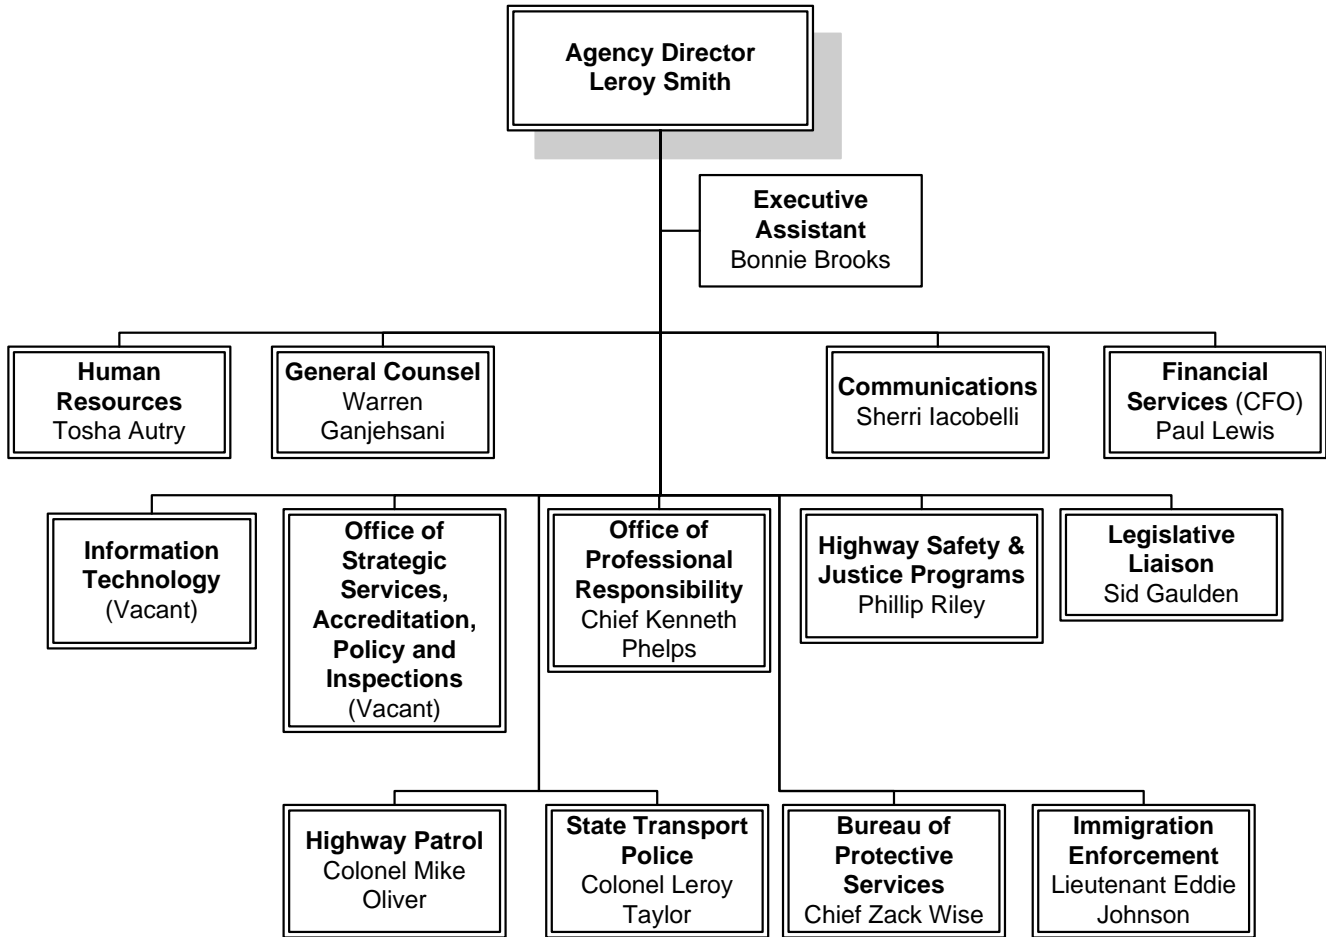

1. Recurring funding for salary increases and formulation of salary career path to assist with recruitment and retention of law enforcement officers.
2. Recurring funding for Information Technology framework and operating expenses as well as law enforcement vehicles.
3. Additional funding for Body Worn Cameras which would assist SCDPS and local law enforcement agencies in fully outfitting officers that are required to wear body worn cameras as part of their respective agencies’ policies.

FUTURE GOALS

During Fiscal Year 2017, SCDPS will continue striving toward its goal of zero traffic fatalities by implementing effective outreach programs and safety campaigns, upholding State and Federal laws related to commercial motor vehicles and highway safety, enforcing immigration laws pursuant to Federal and State statutes, and partnering with SCDOT and other law enforcement agencies on highway safety initiatives. SCDPS will continue to reach out to the public by working with families of highway fatalities, posting safety information via official social media sites, and partnering with schools to encourage, support, and promote public safety.
