AGENCY’S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

STATEWIDE ENTERPRISE STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

The University has explicitly integrated three statewide enterprise strategic objectives into its own strategic and tactical planning, operations, management, and assessment.

- Education, Training and Human Development: the University endeavors, as its primary mission, to elevate the educational preparedness of South Carolinians to lead productive and healthy lives. An important component of this is ensuring that our students have pathways for success in their professional careers and in their communities as thought leaders and citizens.
- Public Infrastructure and Economic Development: the University continues to build a world-class infrastructure of knowledge, wisdom, creativity, and physical and human resources to serve South Carolina’s citizens and to promote South Carolina as a globally competitive location for business, innovation, and living.
- Healthy and Safe Families: the University contributes to the health, development, and safety of South Carolina families in myriad ways including: food security through research, educational programming, and supporting cooperative extension; developing talented personnel and research-proven programs to improve the effectiveness of PK-12 education; and supporting personal and public health via research programs, practitioner education, and health services.

CLEMSON ELEVATE: A S.M.A.R.T PLAN

The statewide enterprise objectives and its S.M.A.R.T. (Specific, Measurable, Attainable, and Time-bound) framework for objectives were integrated components of our Clemson Elevate strategic plan, which has three principal parts—each of which has quantitative targets to be achieved.

Deliver the No. 1 Student Experience in the Nation: Every Student Thrives

- Excel in experiential learning
- Amplify academic success
- Promote the Clemson Experience

Double Research by 2035: Discovery Drives Success

- Build an AAU-aligned faculty that leverages existing and emerging research strengths and addresses societal needs.
- Create world-class research infrastructure.
- Leverage the Innovation Campuses and partnerships.

Transform Lives Statewide and Beyond: Service Builds Community

- Enhance educational and economic opportunities for South Carolinians.
- Promote agricultural and natural resources excellence and lead animal health issues for the state.
- Improve the health outcomes of South Carolinians.

The inclusion of metrics tied to these strategic objectives into our Agency Accountability Report monitors and shares our progress towards, and holds us accountable for, specific measurable targets associated with Clemson Elevate. These metrics comprise the Performance Measures in the Strategic Planning Results component of the University’s Agency Accountability Report.

UNIVERSITY PERFORMANCE

Accountability Report Strategic Planning Measures

FY23 saw continued very high achievement in overall undergraduate student success performance. As reported in the accompanying Strategic Planning component of this report, the 6-year graduation rate climbed 1.8 percentage points to an historical high of 87.9%. This increase was supported by an accompanying, even larger, increase in 4-year graduation rate to 70.7%. A gap exceeding our 4 percentage point target in 6-year graduation rate between Pell-eligible and non Pell-eligible students persisted. While our Pell-eligible 6-year graduation rate of over 76% remains enviably high, the University pursued continuous improvement during FY24 by developing and implementing a no-cost summer early-start program for select Pell-eligible freshman enrolling in Fall 2024.

Student completion-related metrics were also positive. Annual graduates completing health-related degrees, which support workforce needs and address societal challenges in the State, rose 11.7% to 1035—exceeding the 955 target value. Annual teacher preparation graduates hired by SC school districts rose 17.4% to 135—exceeding the 117 target value. Annual doctoral graduates rose 7.3% to 280—exceeding the 267 target value; this increase has been supported by 6-year doctoral completions rate that remain near historically high levels.

The University continued to surpass its ambitious research expenditure goals. The $286.5 million greatly exceeded the $270 million target value. This success has been underpinned by the success of our faculty in submitting more applications for grants, submitting applications for higher grant amounts, and achieving higher success rates for applications that are funded.

Scholarly impact, as measured by publication citations per faculty over 5 years, showed a large 17.3% annual increase. The 129.8 citations per faculty exceeded the target value of 117. In supporting our productive faculty, the University has provided more of its college deans, associate deans, and department chairs with analytical tools that enable them to benchmark the scholarly productivity in their departments and academic doctoral programs over time and against national peers. FY24 saw continued expansion in the capability and breadth of these tools. The University continued its relaunch of data tools to enable faculty to identify scholarly collaborators within the University and nationally, find or have pushed to them (via e-mail) potential grant funding opportunities at the individual faculty member level, and identify honorific award nomination opportunities.

Accompanying these notable successes were a couple strategic plan metrics that fell below target for FY24. The number of tenured and tenure-track faculty held roughly constant at 976, falling below the 1015 small growth target. At this time, the University is engaged in deliberate planning to produce a phased and responsibly-resourced hiring roadmap that is aligned with student enrollment growth, supporting strategic research areas, and ensuring our faculty support an AAU-caliber scholarly enterprise. The number of annual participants in our college readiness programs that enroll in any college declined from 188 to 157—falling short of the 193 target. The University continues to work on prospective student attention and access to this program by continuing to seek philanthropic support to defray participant costs and by bringing STEM workshops to high schools across the State.

Clemson Elevate Key Enablers

There are numerous foundational elements and tactical initiatives that support and serve as accelerators for the Clemson Elevate strategic plan. Broadly, these include: a) Institutional Excellence regarding product and service quality, efficiency, and relevance; b) strategic and entrepreneurial Revenue Growth building on recent successes in private giving and unique government/industry co-investments; c) Strategic Enrollment to sustain access to Clemson for SC residents, affordable paths for students with financial need, and quality learning and living environments; d) Inclusive Excellence in providing educational access as a contribution to the long-term health and economic well-being of the people of SC and beyond; and e) Physical Infrastructure leveraging a long-range framework master plan to provide state-of-the-art facilities for learning, research, and outreach.

AGENCY NAME:	Clemson University

Notable progress with these foundational elements was made during the past fiscal year. Examples include:

- The University established the state’s first College of Veterinary Medicine. The College has sought provisional accreditation and hosted a provisional accreditation site visit in May. The University Graduate Curriculum Committee and Board of Trustees approved the DVM degree program, which is being prepared for review by the SC Commission on Higher Education. We remain on track to see our first class of matriculating DVM students in Fall 2026.
- The University processed the termination of 17 low-demand academic programs and low-activity centers and institutes, continuing data-driven analysis of our academic portfolio initiated 6 years ago to identify those components to be considered for closure and termination.
- We continued to develop and implement a limited number of select entrepreneurial revenue-generating programs in our academic portfolio aligned with high-demand workforce needs (e.g., MS Sports Business & Analytics, Master of Public Health, additional concentrations in MS Nursing).
- We continued our multi-year implementation of a new ERP system, providing enhanced services and integration between fiscal and HR systems and services, selecting Workday as our chosen vendor.
- Regional accreditor SACSCOC reaffirmed the University’s accreditation for another 10-year period in December with no (adverse) findings or recommendations.
- The University began the renewal of its Long-range Framework Plan for facilities, contracting with a selected consultant and beginning initial data gathering.
- The University continued its work with a premier online learning platform (Coursera) to provide distance education delivery of select strategic graduate programs at a global scale, starting with MS Computer Science.
- The University conducted a deliberate marketing campaign aimed at enhancing summer enrollment. This resulted in the highest number of summer credit hours generated since historical tracking began.
- The University worked to design and implement a free-of-charge summer 2024 early-start program for select Pell grant-eligible students to enhance early academic success of this student population.
- The University initiated its required Quality Enhancement Plan aimed at: defining, codifying, tracking, and assessing student experiential learning; enhancing coordination and governance of experiential learning at Clemson; and centralizing student services related to experiential learning.

Building Futures:

Building state-of-the-art facilities, renovating aging structures, and creating multi-functional spaces that support a vibrant academic community are critical to the success of the new Clemson Elevate strategic plan. Significant activities in enhancing our physical infrastructure during FY24 included:

AGENCY NAME:	Clemson University
AGENCY CODE:	H120	SECTION:	014

- FY2024 saw Board of Trustees granting construction approval to the Bryan Mall/Manning Hall renovation project. The $155 million Bryan Mall residence hall renovation project supports the “No. 1 Student Experience” pillar of the Clemson Elevate strategic plan. Built in 1967, 1968, and 1970 (respectively), Manning Hall, Lever Hall, and Byrnes Hall house some 1400 students each year. The project includes upgrade and replacement of these residence hall’s mechanical, electrical and plumbing systems; movement of entrances to face each other and create a community courtyard; provision of social space on every floor; and replacement of community bathrooms with home-like private bath spaces. The first building to be renovated, Byrnes Hall, was previously approved and is under construction with an estimated completion date of August 2024. The second building to be renovated, Manning Hall, was also previously approved, and construction began in May 2024 with an estimated completion date of August 2025.
- Clemson University broke ground in March 2024 on a new home for its Department of Forestry and Environmental Conservation (FEC) and, from a broader view, on a new era of stewardship for South Carolina’s natural resources. Upon projected completion in early 2026, the 4-level 85,000-square-foot building on the northeast corner of Cherry and Perimeter roads will replace Lehotsky Hall as the department’s nerve center on campus. South Carolina’s forests are among its most valuable assets — not just in financial terms — as both a distinctive feature of its landscape and a renewable resource with recreational, wildlife and environmental benefits. The building will showcase mass-timber construction and advanced applications of wood products and technologies that are an essential part of modern conservation and forestry sciences and feature a native flora landscape that connects workspaces to the natural environment.
- Concept design for the new College of Veterinary Medicine began with anticipated construction beginning in summer 2024. The Board of Trustees increased the Phase 1 budget for the construction to $110 million, enabling continued planning and design activities, initial site work, and making awards for infrastructure such as HVAC, switchgear, and structural systems. The project includes the construction of approximately 232,500 gross square feet of teaching, clinical and research facilities. The College of Veterinary Medicine will be constructed near the main campus of Clemson University at a site near the intersection of Starkey Road and W. Queen Street. This site provides the veterinary school students and faculty with proximity and easy access to the University research farms, teaching herds, and the T. Ed Garrison Arena and Expo Center, one of the premier livestock facilities in the Southeast.
- The Board approved the Athletics Performance and Wellness Center. This visionary project comprises a cutting-edge 55,000 square foot facility that will revolutionize the training and wellness experience for student-athletes and is poised to set a new standard in collegiate sports facilities.
- The Board of Trustees provided initial approval for the design and construction of a six-level 1200-space parking facility located near the newly aligned Williamson Road to the east and Perimeter Road to the south. This facility will be located centrally near the new Alumni and Visitors Center and will provide high-density parking for alumni, visitors, athletic functions and prospective students’ on-campus tours. Construction is planned to begin June 2025 with a completion date of December 2026.
- Construction continued on the $130 million Advanced Materials Innovation Complex (AMIC), a 143,000 square foot facility designed for education and research scheduled to open at the end of 2025. This facility heralds a new era of innovation and workforce development in advanced materials for South Carolina and the broader region. AMIC will be the University’s most technologically advanced facility, and includes cutting-edge research and teaching laboratories, synergistic classrooms, and collaborative spaces for exploration and conversation outside the lab and classroom. AMIC will also be the new home of the Department of Materials Science and Engineering.
- Construction continued on a new approximately 100,000 square foot Alumni and Visitors Center that will be home to some of the University’s most crucial partners and programs, including the Clemson Alumni Association, Class of 1944 Visitors Center, the Board of Trustees office, Advancement, Clemson University

AGENCY CODE:	H120	SECTION:	014

Foundation, Admissions, and the Michelin Career Center. The new Alumni and Visitors Center will overlook the 18th green of the John E. Walker Sr. Golf Course and the shores of Lake Hartwell, standing as the University’s front door—inviting prospective students to explore campus and welcoming past generations back home.

- Work continued on the project to demolish the Union Building Complex, Johnstone Hall, and Harcombe Dining Hall. This project comprises the 132,500 square foot Johnstone Hall (built in the 1950’s as temporary housing and well past its useful life), the Union Building Complex (constructed in 1974 and in poor condition), as well as smaller facilities associated with University Facilities’ move away from the campus core. Demolition will support the University’s broader strategy to prioritize on-campus space for student-centric needs; this space, right in the heart of campus, will be enjoyed by students, faculty, staff, and visitors as a park-like green space once demolition is complete. The entire project is anticipated to be completed at the end of 2025.

University Fundraising

The University had another extraordinary record-breaking fundraising year—our eighth consecutive year eclipsing $150 million, and thirteenth consecutive year eclipsing $100 million. Private gifts to Clemson University totaled a record $259 million during the 2024 fiscal year, eclipsing last year’s record total by more than 19%. The $259,072,365 raised in academic and athletic philanthropic support was given by 40,484 individual alumni, faculty, staff, students, parents, friends, partners and donors who contributed a combined 107,295 gifts.

Our fundraising included: more than $171 million cash, pledges, and gifts in kind; fifty planned gifts amounting to over $38.5 million; pledges and donations to IPTAY totaling $80.6 million in support of our 550 Clemson student-athletes; and unrestricted donations of $3.3 million. Particularly notable is that the FY24 fundraising level represents a continuing increased level in philanthropic giving nine years following the close of our Will to Lead capital campaign, as our donors and supporters continue to engage with our students, faculty, and staff to support the Clemson Experience.

The generous members of our Clemson University donor community adapted to the challenges of the past three years and showed their support with 22 gifts of $1 million or more. FY24 donors provided funds supporting initiatives that include 106 new scholarships and the creation of 94 new endowments. FY2024 saw our ninth-annual Give Day (4/10/24) produce $2.1 million from 3,930 donors, as well as an enviably high 16.9% alumni participation rate. The gifts received make it possible for Clemson to provide the student support, academic resources, and facilities that are commensurate with its standing as one of the finest public universities in the country.

Building on the FY18 launch of the Cornerstone Partners for Academics program, modeled after the successful Cornerstone Partners for Athletics program, FY24 saw two new critical Academic Cornerstone gifts this year. These included:

- A visionary establishment of a $2.5 million gift from Bo and Donna Gosset—the first Cornerstone gift exclusively dedicated to the Division of Student Affairs. This division strives to provide every Clemson student with the best opportunity to grow and excel in school, outside the classroom and after graduation with a world-class education. Beyond their time at Clemson, the division ensures that students feel empowered and capable of maintaining success in each of their unique individual journeys. This gift is a direct investment in initiatives that directly impact the well-being and growth of Clemson students—not only affecting individual lives but also strengthening the impact that our graduates can have across our state and beyond.

- A $3 million gift from Joe and Cathy Turner for the new Clemson Alumni and Visitors Center. Situated on the shores of Lake Hartwell, the new Clemson Alumni and Visitors Center will offer panoramic views of the 18th green against the natural beauty of Hartwell. Conveniently located next to the James Martin Inn and the Clyde V. Madren Conference Center, the space will serve as a hub of activity to elevate Clemson University. The Turner Family Loggia will be a high-traffic area in the new Clemson Alumni and Visitors Center and serve as a front porch to campus where many students will take their first steps into a lifelong journey with Clemson.

FY24 saw the establishment of an additional 2 new Athletic Cornerstone partnerships. The combined $5.7 million from the Mike Watt family and the Steve Watt family will support a new cutting-edge, 55,000 square foot athletic performance and wellness center. In conjunction with the IPTAY gifts, our loyal donors are directly promoting our student-athletes through robust facilities, scholarships, academic support services, strength and conditioning, life skills, nutrition services, and more.

University Athletics

The 2024 fiscal year was one of extraordinary achievement and growth for Clemson Athletics. Building on its tradition of excellence, the department delivered standout performances across a range of sports while setting new records in academic achievement, fundraising, and fan engagement. These accomplishments reflect Clemson's ongoing commitment to holistic success—where competitive results, academic rigor, and strategic investments align to position our athletics enterprise as a national leader.

The men's soccer program had a season for the ages, winning both the ACC Championship and the NCAA Championship, becoming only the eighth ACC team to achieve this dual success in the same season. This marked the program's fourth national title overall and its second in the past three seasons. The team's success was bolstered by Ousmane Sylla, who was honored with the MAC Hermann Trophy as the national player of the year, joining an elite group of Clemson players who have earned this prestigious award. Meanwhile, women's soccer made its own history by advancing to its first-ever College Cup, ending the season with a No. 3 national ranking and 13 shutouts, anchored by ACC Goalkeeper of the Year, Halle Mackiewicz. The success of these programs underscores Clemson's strength across both men's and women's athletics.

Clemson athletics saw a resurgence of competitive success in other sports. Men's basketball made a run to the NCAA Elite Eight for only the second time in program history, while women's golf reached the NCAA match play quarterfinals for the first time. Baseball, under second-year head coach Erik Bakich, enjoyed a revival, earning the No. 6 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and making it to the Super Regional, a feat last achieved in 2010. Not to be outdone, the softball team continued its upward trajectory by making its fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, highlighted by Valerie Cagle becoming the first woman from Clemson to be drafted No. 1 overall in the Athletes Unlimited draft.

Newer programs like gymnastics and lacrosse also made significant strides. In its inaugural season, the gymnastics team not only qualified for the NCAA Tournament but also earned head coach Amy Smith ACC Coach of the Year honors. The lacrosse program, in just its second season, posted its first ACC Tournament victory and demonstrated promising growth. These successes illustrate the department's strategic investments in expanding its athletic offerings while ensuring competitiveness from the outset.

Achievements extended far beyond the playing field. Academically, the department excelled with student-athletes posting a 3.30 GPA in the fall and a 3.31 GPA in the spring. For the first time in Clemson's history, every athletic team recorded a GPA of 3.0 or higher for both semesters. The department also led all public Power Five institutions with a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 97 percent, reflecting its commitment to academic excellence. Football’s 99 percent GSR set a national benchmark, the highest ever recorded for a public Power Five football program. Ten programs set or tied their best GSR scores, with a record number of teams achieving perfect 100 percent marks.

AGENCY NAME:	Clemson University

Clemson also experienced unprecedented success in fan engagement, welcoming over 789,000 ticketed fans across its venues and generating record ticket revenue. Clemson ranked in the top 15 nationally in attendance for six different sports, highlighting the robust and passionate support from its fanbase. This engagement is a testament to the strong connection between the university, its alumni, and the surrounding community that continues to fuel Clemson’s growth.

Significant strides were also made in facilities development. The completion of the Women’s Sports Expansion project, which included new lacrosse and gymnastics facilities as well as a recovery center and upgrades to the rowing facilities, positions Clemson to better support its student-athletes. Enhancements to the football gameday experience, such as the completion of the Brown Family Tiger Walk, further cemented Clemson’s status as a premier destination for collegiate athletics. These investments are critical to Clemson’s long-term success and align with its commitment to providing world-class resources for its student-athletes.

On the compliance and operational side, Clemson maintained a forward-looking approach in navigating the evolving landscape of collegiate athletics, especially with regard to NIL. A dedicated position was created for NIL compliance, ensuring that Clemson remains at the forefront of this new era while preserving its reputation for integrity. Regular rules education sessions were conducted with coaches, staff, and athletes to keep everyone informed and aligned, highlighting the department’s proactive approach to governance in an increasingly complex environment.

Looking ahead, key FY25 objectives include evolving Clemson Athletic Properties to drive commercial revenue, advancing NIL strategies that capitalize on our market position, and preparing for the expanded College Football Playoff. Facility upgrades remain a priority, with significant projects like the Performance & Wellness Center and Basketball Operations Expansion expected to enhance Clemson’s infrastructure. Additionally, the department is committed to celebrating the 50th anniversary of varsity women’s athletics with a comprehensive series of events.

As Clemson Athletics positions itself for the future, the University remains steadfast in its mission to deliver excellence in every facet of its operations—from academics and student-athlete development to competitive success and community engagement. FY24 was a clear demonstration of this commitment, setting the stage for even greater accomplishments in the years to come.

RISK ASSESSMENT AND MITIGATION STRATEGIES

The potential most negative impact as a result of a failure in accomplishing our mission is the risk of socioeconomic retrenchment arising from diminishment of workforce development for key state enterprises: fewer qualified human resources and knowledge discovery that support critical needs such as health and education; impairment of discovery and research that is required for thriving advanced manufacturing, health, financial, educational, and agricultural enterprises; reduction in the effectiveness of good government that comes from an educated public; hindrance of efforts to close educational gaps between populations undergoing demographic changes; and erosion of the cultural resources and climate that support South Carolinians’ important community, personal, and spiritual relationships.

AGENCY NAME:	Clemson University
AGENCY CODE:	H120	SECTION:	014

Clemson works diligently, intentionally, and collaboratively to mitigate such risks. Examples of these efforts include:

- 1) Compliance with the standards of our accrediting body, SACSCOC, through effectiveness in day-to-day business operations
- 2) Collaboration and compliance with professional academic bodies to maintain program-specific accreditation of numerous academic programs at the University.
- 3) Transparent dealings with private-sector credit rating agencies who conduct independent business and financial reviews to reach their independent conclusions regarding our creditworthiness and financial sustainability.
- 4) Nurturing authentic relationships with corporations, private foundations, and individuals to understand their needs, establish mutually beneficial programmatic initiatives, and engender private sector financial support.
- 5) Securing select private-sector services to ensure that we have software, data, and analytical resources with which to reach conscious, evidence-based decisions regarding our academic programs, scholarly production, operations, and student welfare initiatives.
- 6) A vigorous enterprise risk management and business continuity framework that provides us with a proactive posture to continue successful operations in the face of sudden or unforeseen events.

Supportive actions by the State that would mitigate the risk of the potential most negative impact would be those that provide flexibility and innovation space to Clemson for the benefit of its students, their families, and South Carolinians. Examples of these might include:

- 1) Eliminating or loosening State-imposed percentage-of-tuition-based caps on institutional scholarship aid—particularly need-based aid.
- 2) Employing a ramped or stepped reduction in student-directed State scholarship aid rather than a sharp cutoff when falling below GPA thresholds, and/or restorative scholarship payments when GPA thresholds are re-attained.
- 3) Added no-cost flexibility to how in-state students might parse and use Palmetto Scholar/LIFE funding during their matriculation—especially during summer terms.
- 4) Enabling Palmetto/LIFE scholarship enhancements for sophomore-and-above SC transfer students entering 1-year required gateway programs that are not degrees (e.g., General Engineering).
- 5) The University, its students, their families, and the State benefit greatly from direct State appropriations and State scholarship funds provided to students. As Clemson works to help SC prepare to meet future challenges, we do so on a competitive landscape with a modest endowment compared to many public university competitors. Securing State educational appropriations per student FTE that is at the median level of our competitive peers according to the SHEEO (see Figure 2.3 of the FY23 SHEF report) is important while we continue our successful work at developing greater and more diverse sources of long-term private support.

Agency Mission

Adopted in:

Clemson University was established to fulfill our founder's vision of 'a high seminary of learning' to develop 'the material resources of the State' for the people of South Carolina. Nurtured by an abiding land grant commitment, Clemson has emerged as a research university with a global vision. Our primary purpose is educating undergraduate and graduate students to think deeply about and engage in the social, scientific, economic, and professional challenges of our times. The foundation of this mission is the generation, preservation, communication, and application of knowledge. The University also is committed to the personal growth of the individual and promotes an environment of good decision-making, healthy and ethical lifestyles, and tolerance and respect for others. Our distinctive character is shaped by a legacy of service, collaboration, and fellowship forged from and renewed by the spirit of Thomas Green Clemson's covenant.
