SOUTH CAROLINA'S CROFT STATE NATURAL AREA

Croft State Natural Area is a big park with lots to do. A green retreat in the heart of fast-growing Spartanburg County, the park offers 26 miles of mountain biking and hiking trails, a playground, picnicking and camping, as well as fishing and boating in two lakes, including 165-acre Lake Craig.

Croft also is known around the region for its equestrian facilities. The park regularly hosts shows in its arena and boasts 27 miles of equestrian trails and 51 stalls.

The diverse park was once an Army training base and is made up of rolling, wooded terrain that also provides habitat for a wide variety of flora and fauna just five miles from bustling downtown Spartanburg.
