State Director's Angle The Power of Compassion

By Michael Leach, SCDSS State Director

As we begin 2023, I want to take a moment to reflect on the importance of compassion.

Compassion is a powerful force that has the ability to bring people together and create positive change in the world. It allows us to connect with others on a deeper level, to understand their struggles and challenges, and to offer support and understanding.

Over the past year, we have all faced challenges and uncertainty. And in these difficult times, compassion has played a crucial role in helping us come together and support one another. Whether it was through small acts of kindness or larger efforts to make a difference, we have shown compassion to those around us, and it has made a difference.

As we move forward into the year ahead, I'm asking our partners to join with us to continue cultivating compassion and making it a central part of our lives and service to others. Whether it's through volunteering, donating, or simply offering a kind word to someone in need, let's make compassion a guiding principle that helps us create a better world for all.

So let's embrace this new year with compassion, enthusiasm and determination. Together, we can make a real difference in the lives of those we serve and create a better SC for all.

New Federal Planning Grant Awarded to SCDSS

The SC Department of Social Services recently received approval of a new federal planning grant award to help the state's continued expansion of the state's Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE) infrastructure. This work aligns with and furthers SCDSS' commitment to strengthen the state's integrated early childhood system, prepare low-income and disadvantaged children to enter kindergarten, invest in the early childhood workforce, and expand access to high-quality ECCE programs in a mixed delivery system.

The grant provides an additional $3.7 million in federal funds through the new Preschool Development Grant Birth through Five (PDG B-5) Planning Grant program administered by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Administration for Children and Families. Read more...

DECE Partners with Gamecocks for Health & Fitness Game

On January 15th, the Division of Early Care & Education (DECE) partnered with the South Carolina Gamecocks women's basketball team for the 8th annual Health & Fitness Game at Colonial Life Arena. That day, the South Carolina Gamecocks played the Missouri Tigers. The purpose of the event was to promote healthy food and physical fitness for young children and families. Pictured are: DSS State Director Michael Leach; USC's Cocky; Amber Gillum, DSS Deputy State Director for Economic Services; and, Michele Bowers, DECE Director.

DECE gave away free tickets and meal vouchers to families whose children participate in a Head Start program. During the game, families were able to visit information booths from DECE programs and other partnering organizations, as well as participate in fun activities that focused on healthy food, nutrition, and physical activity.

Along with promoting health and fitness, DECE also recognized individuals who have made a difference in the lives of children and families. Latifah Long, director of Bright Horizons at The Columbia Federal Center in Columbia, was honored as the Child Care Hero of the Game, and the Hines Family of Richland County was recognized as the Adoptive Family of the Year.

On January 14th, ABC Quality, in partnership with the Gamecocks, honored Tammy Mancuso, Director of Living Springs Lutheran Church Child Development Center in Columbia, as the Child Care Hero of the Game. Watch a short video of her recognition during the Gamecocks men's basketball game.

CACFP Reimbursement Rates Increase

From July 1, 2022, to June 30, 2023, the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) is increasing meal reimbursement rates for participating CACFP programs. Family and group child care homes participating in CACFP can now receive reimbursement at the Tier 1 rate, the highest reimbursement rate for CACFP homes. Plus, all facilities will receive an additional 10-cent reimbursement per meal or supplement. Providers interested in participating in CACFP can visit scchildcare.org to apply.

SNAP Employment and Training National Forum

By Tammy James, Division of Employment Services Director

In December, DSS' SNAP Employment and Training Program (SNAP E&T) was invited to present at the SNAP Employment and Training National Forum in Alexandria, Virginia.

The presentation was requested due to state's exclusive construction of the South Carolina Comprehensive Employment & Training System (SCCETS). The effective collaboration between DSS' IT representatives and the E&T program has resulted in a highly successful, unique, and comprehensive system. The system allows for referral tracking, invoicing, contract management, reporting, and program expansion. For the presentation, Deborah Reed-Cole (Program Manager) and Chandra Vempati (SCCETS System Architect) spoke about the process and lessons learned in development of the system. Ms. Reed-Cole and Mr. Vempati also provided a demonstration of the SCCETS. Shown here are Deborah Reed-Cole (E&T Program Manager, left) and Chandra Vempati (Division of Technology Services, middle) at the event.

2022 Impact Fact

- More than 3,700 TANF or SNAP E&T participants gained employment.
(Represents full- and part-time employments.)

Infant in Richland County Surrendered Safely Under Safe Haven Act

Officials with Prisma Health Richland Hospital recently accepted an infant surrendered under Daniel's Law, the Safe Haven for Abandoned Babies Act, on Monday, January 9th, 2023. The SC Safe Haven for Abandoned Babies Act provides a safe, legal option for the abandonment of babies up to 60 days old who have not been harmed.

The African American female was born on January 8th, 2023, weighed seven pounds and was 20 inches long at the time of birth. The infant was safely surrendered at Prisma Health Richland Hospital in Columbia. Under the Safe Haven for Abandoned Babies Act, Richland County DSS took custody of the newborn, and the infant has been placed in a licensed foster home.

A permanency planning hearing will be held on February 15th, 2023, at 9:30 am at the Richland County Family Court located at 1701 Main Street, 3rd floor in Columbia.

The Department of Social Services has made a dedicated page on the agency's website regarding Daniel's Law in South Carolina with current data. This is the first Daniel's Law baby surrendered in South Carolina during the 2023 calendar year.

APS Team Steps Up to Help Residents

In late December, DHEC suspended the license of Bowel's Residential Care Home, a community residential care facility (CRCF), in McClellanville, SC. This CRCF housed approximately 17 men in two homes. Some of the residents had lived at Bowel's for decades and considered the other residents family.

After receiving the call that the CRCF had numerous deficiencies and the license was being suspended, the Adult Advocacy team immediately traveled to McClellanville to assist the men who needed to be relocated. The Adult Advocacy Team along with staff from the Long-Term Care Ombudsman's Office, DHEC, DMH, and DHHS all met at Bowel's Residential Care Home to act as partners while assisting with the needs of the residents.

APS Director of Community Relations, Russell Rich, along with Philecia Wright (APS Supervisor Charleston County), Dominik Green (Dorchester County APS Case Manager), Kishia Gibbs (Lowcountry Program Coordinator), and Janet Wiseman (Low Country Regional Director) worked for days with the residents to identify alternative placements. The Adult Advocacy team took their task seriously, understanding that every resident at the facility had the right to live anywhere they chose, but the team also knew that they could not remain at Bowel's.

Although none of the residents were DSS APS clients or in the custody of DSS, the APS team helped residents collect and pack personal belongings, provide transportation to new placements, and calm fears and anxieties while also knowing that they had a limited amount of time to assist the residents with relocation. At the end of the third day with Russell Rich in the lead, the APS staff helped facilitate the smooth transition of 10 residents to other facilities while eight were moved to another facility. This also marked the first time that no EPC's occurred during one of these events

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Know the Facts...

Domestic Violence is present in every community, across all demographics. The effects of abuse suffered can be both physical and mental and can last a lifetime. According to the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence, nearly 20 people per minute are physically abused by an intimate partner in the United States. In one year, that equals more than 10 million people. To learn more about making a difference, click here.

CHILD SUPPORT SERVICES

Child Support Services Announces Major Collections Over Holidays

By James Swick, Assistant Director, Division of Policy and Training, Child Support Services Division

The Child Support Services Division (CSSD) recently collected and disbursed over $11.7 million dollars in only four days. The fact that this was accomplished during the business days after Christmas and following New Year's Day is even more incredible. The State Disbursement Unit, the centralized child support collection and disbursement operation, processed over 20,000 collections each day along with a similar number of disbursements to parents. While it is easy to focus solely on a number or give credit to the Palmetto Automated Child Support System (PACSS), it is the dedicated professionals of the Child Support Services Division who made this possible. DSS Recognizes January Employees of the Month

On January 13th, seven DSS professionals were recognized by State Director Michael Leach as agency Employees of the Month for January 2023.

Recognized for their hard work and leading with Competence, Courage, and Compassion for January are: Dan Rusu, Information Technology, Columbia; Lindsay McDowell, Staff Training & Development

Upstate Region; Rena Miler-Vinson, Child Support Services, Columbia; and, Amy Stanko, Office of General Counsel, Spartanburg.

Each honoree has the use of a designated parking space for the entire month. Honorees also received a DSS lapel pin and an announcement sent to their local newspaper. Congratulations!

Inspiring Young Learners

As part of the First Steps MLK Week of Service 2023 events, DSS State Director Michael Leach participated in a virtual read-aloud on the morning of January 18th, reading to 4K students at Mingo Creek Academy in Georgetown County.

Director Leach read Friends by Emily Bannister & Ana Sanfelippo virtually. Students and staff were thankful for the opportunity to listen and learn through the power of reading!

Josie Jones Named New Anderson County Director

Josie Jones was named the new Anderson County DSS Director as of January 17th. Ms. Jones has served as Spartanburg County Director since 2018 and will continue to do so on an interim basis until a new Spartanburg director is named.

She began her DSS career in November of 2006 as a foster care case manager in Anderson County and later served as a foster care supervisor in Anderson County. In 2014, she worked for the Department of Mental Health and the Guardian ad Litem Program. In June 2016, Ms. Jones returned to DSS as an Upstate Regional Performance Coach. In February 2018, she was named Interim County Director for Spartanburg County and was promoted to County Director in June of that same year.

"As someone who started my career after graduating from college with DSS, I have been fortunate to learn and grow so much as a person and leader over the past 16 years," said Jones. "I have truly enjoyed working in Spartanburg and building long-lasting relationships and memories that will not be forgotten. I am excited about transitioning back to Anderson County where it all began and being able to work with an amazing group of professionals and external partners."

Ms. Jones begins her service in Anderson as County Director after the recent retirement of former Anderson County DSS Director Kenneth McBride.

A Great Career Awaits YOU at SCDSS!

We Are the Village

By Lakieba Brooks-Leach, Community Trust Liaison

Bible Way Church of Atlas Road hosted its “We Are The Village” drive on Sunday, December 18th, 2022. The congregation selflessly adopted over 150 families in foster and kinship care, providing gifts from their Christmas wish lists and needs. Social workers from across the Midlands were also honored during the services with guest speakers Nicole Foulks, Midlands Regional Director (top left), and Amanda Whittle, State Child Advocate from SC Department of Children’s Advocacy (top center). Tamra Scott, Statewide Kinship Care Program Manager for DSS, played an integral role in supporting this effort. Thank you Bible Way!

Thankful for Community Support

By Donna Stackhouse, Marion County Director

Throughout the holidays, our Marion County DSS received donations from multiple businesses and agencies.

We would like to thank several groups for their sponsorship, including the Woodmen of the World Lodge (shown in the group picture).

Also, the Marion County Sheriff’s Office coordinated the “Shop with a Cop” event. Approximately 50 children received a $100 shopping spree at the local Wal-Mart. In addition, the Marion-Mullins Rotary and Anderson Brothers Bank held events to collect gifts that were donated to Marion DSS.

Latest Lily Pad Installed in Greenwood

The latest Lily Pad was recently installed at the Greenwood County DSS for use of foster youth awaiting placement.

Last month, a dedicated team gathered early on a Saturday morning to transform rooms into a safe, welcoming space for children when they are in the office. Thanks to Jennifer and Benjamin Tice and the surrounding community for their tremendous effort! Click here to find out more.

Statewide Diaper D.A.S.H. Collaborative Project

The South Carolina Association of Community Action Partnerships (SCACAP), Inc. has been named a recipient of the Diaper Distribution Demonstration and Research Pilot grant. The Office of Community Services (OCS) within the Administration for Children and Families at the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services funded the new Diaper Distribution Demonstration and Research Pilot on September 27th, 2022.

This program channels new funding to expand existing diaper distribution services through the robust network of anti-poverty services that OCS already provides through the Community Services Block Grant.

SCACAP has named the project, the Statewide SC Diaper D.A.S.H. (Distribution Among Service Hubs) Collaborative. SCACAP will scale up existing diaper distribution programs where families can receive diapers on a consistent basis and expand diaper distribution services into 30 unserved or underserved additional counties to allow families to reach their full potential, reduce health disparities, and achieve self-sufficiency outcomes.

For more information, please email diaperdash@scacap.org.
