America's Best High Schools

The annual ranking by U.S. News & World Report rated North Charleston's Academic Magnet High School 12th among 1,750 ranked as the best in the United States. The ranking is based on how the schools served all students with state proficiency standards as the measuring benchmarks. Schools that met proficiency standards were assessed on how well they prepared students for college-level work. Twenty one other schools in South Carolina made the list.
