YOU ARE MOST URGENTLY INVITED

 to attend the Tri-State NATA meeting at Myrtle Beach, S. C. Wednesday, July 11th. Sponsored by the Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina Chapters of National Aviation Trades Association, the meeting has been planned to assist fixed base and airport operators toward strengthening their aviation businesses and securing greater revenue therefrom.

WELL KNOWN SPEAKERS

 who know what they are talking about, will offer practical and proven advice, with suggestions that can be put to work now toward boosting income. Slated for the one-day program are such nationally known speakers as JENNINGS RANDOLPH, Assistant to the President of Capital Airlines; JOHN GRIFFIN, National President of NATA and a successful Massachusetts operator; MRS. VERA FOSTER, attractive and able editor of the "Local Operations" column in AMERICAN AVIATION magazine; E. A. "TONY" ANTHONY who, as manager of Myrtle Beach Municipal Airport, has produced amazing angles of income-producing operations; CHARLES PARKER, Executive Director of NATA, who will prove that YOU CAN INCREASE YOUR SALES.

WITH SOUTH CAROLINA AVIATION TRADES ASSOCIATION

 acting as host, plus O. L. "Andy" Andrews and his live Commission of Aeronautics and backed up by the Myrtle Beach Airport Commission, SCATA has gone all out to provide the event with a perfect meeting place: Myrtle Beach's magnificent OCEAN FOREST HOTEL, one of the finest and most popular beach hotels on the Atlantic coast.

Friends of aviation in South Carolina have subsidized the costs of the meeting to such an extent that the registration fee for the entire affair will be only $15.00 per person. This includes dinner and lodging Tuesday night; breakfast, lunch and the banquet, plus lodging Wednesday night AND the use of the OCEAN FOREST HOTEL'S WONDERFUL BEACH. Never has any previous aviation event offered so much for so little cost.

THERE WILL BE TIME FOR FISHING, SWIMMING, FUN

 attendance door prizes, including a $25.00 U. S. Savings Bond, will be awarded during the meeting. Don't miss this chance to rub shoulders with your fellow operators in three states. There's much to be learned.

MAKE YOUR RESERVATIONS EARLY

 mail it at once with your check to E. A. Anthony, Manager of the Myrtle Beach Municipal Airport. The Ocean Forest is a big hotel, but don't get left out. If you can't possibly do so now, you may register at the booth at the Myrtle Beach Airport which will be open for business early Tuesday, July 10. Tickets for the meeting must be secured at the airport, not the hotel.

BREAKFAST CLUB

The Breakfast Club met last Sunday, the 24th, at Abbeville on the new strip that has been constructed by Ralph Davis. This is the first Breakfast Club ever to meet at Abbeville inasmuch as a landing facility had not been available heretofore. Over 50 were present at the breakfast and joined in congratulating Ralph Davis on the good work that he has done for Abbeville and for aviation!

SALES TAX

We are now compiling information on the new South Carolina Sales Tax as it relates to commercial aviation in South Carolina. When this survey is completed we will issue a special bulletin on this subject.

AIR LINE EDUCATION

About 75 school teachers and civic leaders were conducted on a tour of the Columbia and Greenville Municipal Airports within the past two weeks. These groups were taken to all departments on the field in order that they might learn of the many facilities provided for the rapidly growing aviation industry. The climax of the program was a flight in a Eastern Airlines DC-3 around the area. Many of these people were experiencing their first flight which proved very interesting to all. A like program will also be conducted at Spartanburg on July 6. These events are a part of the Educational Program being pursued by this Commission.
