Chapter 1

General Information

1. What is a notary public?

Black's Law Dictionary defines notary public as, "A person authorized by a state to administer oaths, certify documents, attest to the authenticity of signatures, and perform official acts in commercial matters, such as protesting negotiable instruments." S.C. Code §26-1-90 states that a notary public may "administer oaths, take depositions, affidavits, protests for nonpayment of bonds, notes, drafts and bills of exchange, acknowledgements and proof of deeds and other instruments required by law to be acknowledged and renunciations of dower and perform all other acts provided by law to be performed by notaries public." Notaries are ministerial public officers and impartial witnesses for the state.

2. What are the qualifications for being a notary public in South Carolina?

A notary public must be registered to vote in South Carolina thirty days prior to an election. In order to become a registered voter, one must:

- ✓ be a United States citizen;
- ✓ be at least 18 years old on or before the next election;
- ✓ be a resident of South Carolina, declaring a county and precinct;
- ✓ not be under a court order declaring mental incompetence;
- ✓ not be serving a term of imprisonment resulting from a conviction of a crime; and
- ✓ have never been convicted of a felony or offense against the election laws OR if previously convicted, have served an entire sentence including probation or parole, or have received a pardon for the conviction.

3. What is the application process for becoming a notary public?

a) Carefully type or print legibly all information requested on the top portion of your application (see Page 36) and sign in the presence of a notary public. The bottom portion is to be completed by your county delegation. Addresses for the legislative delegations are on the front of the application. Check "New" at the top right of the application form.

b) Attach a $25.00 check or money order payable to "Secretary of State" to your application.

c) Mail the application with your check or money order to your county delegation for the required signatures. Your delegation office will forward your check or money order and application to the Secretary of State's Office.

d) If your county is not listed on the front of the application, forward your application and check or money order to:

South Carolina House of Representatives

P.O. Box 11867

Columbia, SC 29211-1867

e) The Secretary of State's Office will mail your commission certificate to you after we have received and processed your application.

f) You must be a registered voter to become a notary public. If you do not know your voter registration number, call your County Voters Registration Office or County Registration and Election Commission for this information. The telephone number is listed in the County Government section of your local telephone book, and can also be found at www.scvotes.org/how_to_register_absentee_voting.

4. What is the process for renewing my notary public commission?

The renewal process is the same as the initial registration process, including the $25 fee. Check "Renew" at the top right of the application form.

NOTE: Commissions are not automatically renewed; renewal is the responsibility of the notary, as notice will not be given that a commission is near expiration. The notary should reapply at least one month prior to the commission expiration date.

5. What is the term of a notary?

The notary will serve a ten-year term from the date processed by the Secretary of State. You can find the expiration date of a notary's commission by performing a notary search on the Secretary of State's website at www.scsos.com.

6. What is the notary "commission?"

The commission is an 8½" x 14" certificate with a gold ink seal at the top signed by the Governor and Secretary of State. The commission certificate states the notary's name and commission expiration date. A wallet card is also issued as part of the commission certificate. The wallet card can be detached from the document and laminated.

It is important that all information be checked for correctness on the commission certificate. If the name is incorrect, do not register with the Clerk of Court. Strike through the incorrect information and print the correct spelling legibly above the misprinted name. Return the corrected copy to the Secretary of State's Office immediately and you will be issued a new commission with the correct information.

Once the notary has received the commission, the notary has 15 days to hand-carry the commission certificate to his or her county Clerk of Court's Office. You must enroll in the county in which you reside. You will need to provide photo identification and pay a $5.00 fee. The Clerk's Office will stamp the back of the commission certificate with the book and page number of the record book in which the commission certificate is recorded. Congratulations! You are now ready and authorized to perform notarial duties in South Carolina.

7. What is the jurisdiction of a South Carolina notary public?

Notaries commissioned in South Carolina are authorized to act throughout the state.

If you live in South Carolina but work in North Carolina, Georgia or Washington, DC, these states will permit you to become a notary public for their state. South Carolina does not offer this provision to out-of-state residents that work in South Carolina.

8. What equipment or supplies do I need to perform my notarial duties?

A notarial embossing seal or rubber ink stamp can be purchased and personalized at any local office supply store. If using a rubber stamp, it may be in a circular or rectangular format. The seal or stamp should have the notary's name, title and state (John Doe, Notary Public, South Carolina). The expiration may be included on the seal or stamp but is optional.

Although not required, it is a prudent practice to keep a journal as it is beneficial if you are called to testify to past notarizations.

9. As a South Carolina notary, what duties am I authorized to perform?

You have been authorized by the State of South Carolina to:

- ✓ administer oaths;
- ✓ take depositions and affidavits;
- ✓ take acknowledgements and proofs of deed and other instruments required by law to be acknowledged;
- ✓ perform a marriage ceremony; and
- ✓ perform all other acts provided by law.

10. I've been asked to notarize a document. What do I do?

A notary public must first examine the document to ensure that it is an original, not a photocopy. The document should also be complete, with no blanks to be filled in, and should not appear to be fraudulent in nature. If the notary is not an attorney, he or she may not comment on or advise the signer regarding the content of the document, and is not authorized to draft legal documents.

Before any signing can take place, the notary must require the personal appearance of the signer and evidence of identification from the signer. This can be in the form of:

- ✓ A valid driver's license;
- ✓ A valid state identification;
- ✓ A valid military identification card;
- ✓ A valid passport;
- ✓ Personal knowledge by the notary public; and
- ✓ Verification by a credible witness.
 - A credible witness is someone who personally knows the signer.

As notary, you must also determine to the best of your ability that the signer is competent and

- ✓ not under the influence of drugs or alcohol;
- ✓ not suffering from dementia;
- ✓ understands what he or she is doing;
- ✓ shows a willingness to sign the document without force or duress; and
- ✓ demonstrates the capacity to sign the document.

Once the document has been signed by the signer, you will notarize the document by signing and affixing your seal or stamp and expiration to the document. However, the lack of seal or stamp and expiration will not render the notarization invalid if the official's title is affixed. Use of a notary seal or stamp is strongly recommended.

11. What is my official title?

Notary Public for South Carolina;
South Carolina Notary Public
SC Notary Public; or
Notary Public for SC

12. May I charge for my services as a notary public?

You have the authority to charge the following fees for services rendered:

- 25¢ per document sheet for taking depositions and swearing witnesses;
- 10¢ for each document sheet containing up to 100 words for duplicating depositions, protests and certificates;
- 50¢ for each attendance upon any person for proving a matter or thing and certifying the same;
- 50¢ for every notarial certificate with seal/stamp;
- 25¢ for each administration of oath for affidavits;
- 50¢ plus postage for transmitting notice of a protest; and
- $1.00 for taking a renunciation of dower or inheritance.

13. Does an attorney become a notary public automatically upon qualifying to practice law?

No. Anyone wishing to become a notary public in South Carolina must meet the application requirements and submit an application and fee.

14. Do I need to be bonded?

No.

15. Should I notarize a document written in a language that is foreign to me?

The Secretary of State's Office cautions you against this practice. Although you are not expected to know or understand the contents of the document, you are expected to act prudently. Advise the document owner that a notary who is fluent in the language should notarize the document. You may also suggest that they contact the local college or university language division who may know of someone who can assist them.

16. Should I notarize an English–language document for a foreign–speaking person?

The Secretary of State’s Office cautions you against this practice. Any attempt to assist the holder of a document in understanding the contents could be perceived as practicing law. If you are not an attorney this would be considered the unauthorized practice of law. You should suggest that the document holder contact the local college or university language division who may know of someone who can assist them.

17. I’ve lost my commission. Can I get other copies?

Yes. Please complete the application “Request for Duplicate Notary Public Commission” found on Page 38. Send the request to the address shown on the application along with your check or money order for $10.00, payable to the SC Secretary of State.

Chapter 2

South Carolina Notaries Public Are Not Authorized To:

1. Notarize his or her own signature. You may notarize documents for anyone but yourself. However, you should not notarize when you are a party to the document or will benefit directly or indirectly from the transaction. Notarizing documents such as wills, living wills, advance directives, powers-of-attorney, or property transactions for family members is not recommended. Notaries are impartial witnesses and must use prudent judgment when notarizing for family members.
2. Certify copies of documents. You cannot certify documents as “true and accurate” copies of the original. If the person who owns the document says it is a true and accurate copy of the original, you may notarize his or her signature, but not the document itself. This is called an acknowledgement. This procedure is not applicable to documents where certified copies are available from an official source, such as a birth certificate or death certificate.
3. Notarize blank documents. When you are asked to notarize a document, be sure the document is complete and appears to be legitimate nature. Do not attempt to assist the holder of the document in drafting, completing, or understanding the contents of a document if you are not an attorney. To do so would be the unauthorized practice of law.
4. Offer legal advice unless you are an attorney authorized to practice law in South Carolina.
5. Notarize without proper identification from the signer. Acceptable forms of identification include a valid driver’s license; valid state identification; valid military identification card; valid passport; personal knowledge of the notary public; or verification of a credible witness.
6. Notarize for absent people. Your responsibility as a notary public is to verify that the signer of the document “personally appeared” before you and signed the document or acknowledged he/she signed the document.
7. Postdate or predate notarizations. The date on which a document is drafted can be different from the date it is notarized. Your notarization statement (the jurat or acknowledgement) must reflect the date you notarized the signature on the document and should not be postdated or predated.
8. Certify vital records. It is unlawful for anyone other than the country, state or county to certify vital records. The country, state office or county where the vital record originated and is filed must certify the document. Vital records are birth certificates, marriage licenses, death certificates, divorce decrees, and documents of that nature.

9. Notarize outside of South Carolina. Your jurisdiction extends throughout the State of South Carolina. You must not notarize documents or perform notarial acts while you are visiting or transacting in another state.

Penalties for Improper Notarizations

- Civil Liability
 - A notary public may be sued if his or her actions were negligent. Example: notarized signature of a signer who did not personally appear before the notary which results in a fraudulent transaction.
- Criminal Penalty
 - Misdemeanor: fined $200.00 or not more than 30 days in jail and loss of commission.
- Loss of Commission
 - Upon notification by a court of law that a notary has been convicted of false certification, the Secretary of State will revoke the notary's commission.

Unauthorized Practice of Law (UPL) Highlights

Statutes bar the unauthorized practice of law. Code Section 40-5-20 allows the South Carolina Supreme Court to adopt rules "defining and regulating the practice of law...." Reasons for prohibiting UPL include protecting the public from consequences resulting "from the erroneous preparation of legal documents or the inaccurate legal advice given by persons untrained in the law." South Carolina v. McLauren, 563 S.E.2d 346 (S.C. 2002). For more information, go to www.scbar.org/upl.

Statutes and Rules

- §40-5-310 – prohibits individuals; felony (up to 5 years and/or $5,000)
- §40-5-320 – prohibits corporations; misdemeanor (up to 3 years and/or fine)
- §40-5-80 – permits pro se (self) representation
- §33-1-103 – permits an officer or partner to represent a corporation or partnership in magistrate court only.
- Other statutes and rules regarding insurance adjusters, guardsmen legal assistance, court powers, fee splitting, soliciting legal business, out-of-state attorneys, etc.

Court Cases and Examples

The following are examples that constitute practice of law. Court has determined that practice of law begins before entering a courtroom, including:

- Loan closings
- Giving advice to clients
- Preparation of deeds, notes, mortgages, etc. related to the transfer of property
- Title examination
- Preparation of documents
- Preparation of estate plans
- Advising clients on insurance policies

Some problem areas include:

- Anti-tax groups
- Jailhouse lawyers
- Debt collectors
- Paralegals
- Document prep companies
- Internet sites

However, there are some narrow exceptions:

- Non-lawyer agent of employee of a business in magistrate court
- As allowed by state agencies
- CPAs rendering professional opinions
- Filling in blanks in presence of another if document is legally prepared
- Police officers in traffic court prosecution
- Paralegals working under the supervision of a duly licensed attorney in which work is preparatory in nature

Attorney and UPL

Even attorneys can be guilty of UPL or assisting in it:

- Law students, candidates or out-of-state attorneys practicing in South Carolina without license or authority
- Failing to supervise others (Rules of Professional Conduct, Rule 5.3)
- Professional independence (Rules of Professional Conduct, Rule 5.4)
- Continuing to practice law while under disciplinary sanction
- Assisting UPL (Rules of Professional Conduct, Rule 5.5(a))

- b) Attach a $25.00 check or money order payable to “SC Secretary of State” to your application.
- c) Mail the application and check or money order to your county delegation for the required signatures. Your delegation office will forward your check or money order and application to the Secretary of State’s Office.
- d) If your county is not listed on the front of the application, forward your application and check or money order to:
South Carolina House of Representatives
P.O. Box 11867

Sample Notarial Ceremonies and Forms

There is no specific language required to perform notarial “ceremonies.” However, the scenarios following should assist you.

Sample Script for Taking an Affidavit

Notary: Do you have some forms of photo identification showing your name, address, and signatures that I could use to verify your identity?

Signing Party: Yes. I have a driver’s license and my government identification card.

Notary: (Examines IDs, compares signatures, matches photos to person, and returns IDs.) Thank you. Please don’t put your IDs away. I’ll need to look at them again later. Would you please show me the document you would like to swear to and have notarized?

Signing Party: Here.

Notary: Thank you. In order to notarize this, I will need to have you specifically swear to me that the statements made in it are true. Are you willing to do that?

Signing Party: Yes. (If, as a matter of conscience, a party says “no” because he or she is unwilling to “swear” or take an oath, the party may instead “affirm” to the truth of his or her statements, “under penalty of perjury”. If that is the party’s choice, the words “affirm under penalty of perjury” may be substituted for the word “swear” in the following statement, and the words “so help you God” eliminated.)

Notary: Would you please raise your right hand. Now, do you solemnly swear that the statements in the document you have asked me to notarize are the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Party: Yes, I do.

Notary: Please sign here. (Notary witnesses signing.) Now, may I please see your IDs again? (Notary verifies that signature on document matches the signatures on the IDs.)

The notary then completes the notarization certificate, signs and seals it. The text on the following page is an example of appropriate language to use in an affidavit.

International Transactions–State Authentication Apostilles/Certifications

An apostille (AP–o–steel) is a certification of a public document or a notarized document which can be used in countries that are parties to the Hague Convention. For a complete listing of countries and territories that are party to the Hague Convention, please go to www.hcch.net. Certification by apostille means that a document will be recognized in the country of its intended use without further certification or legalization by the embassy or consulate of the foreign country in which the document is to be used. Apostilles cannot be used in countries which are not members of the Hague Convention. These countries require regular certification through the U.S. Department of State’s Authentication Office.

Apostilles and certifications (also known as the Great Seal) are State Certification of the signature of an official who has signed a legal document. Therefore the signer of the legal document must be an elected or appointed official whose signature is filed with the Office of the Secretary of State. Additionally, documents that have been notarized by a commissioned South Carolina notary public may be certified with an apostille.

Complete instructions and a cover letter are available online at www.sos.sc.gov. Please see the Notaries and Apostilles page. You may also use the cover letter on Page 28.

For apostilles/certifications via US mail, please enclose:

- ✓ cover letter stating for which country the enclosed documents are to be authenticated ;
- ✓ a self-addressed stamped return envelope or a shipping label with your account number;
- ✓ personal/company check, money order, or cash in the amount of $2.00 for each document made payable to “SC Secretary of State;” and
- ✓ the documents to be authenticated.
