

Important Updates

SC Homeowner Rescue will stop accepting new applications April 20, 2023 at 11:59 PM.

SC Homeowner Rescue

Here is what you can do to apply and get your application in before the deadline:

1. Apply before 11:59 pm on the April 20th deadline.
2. Applications submitted before the April 20th deadline will continue to be reviewed until program funds are gone.
3. Be sure to submit all required documents so that your application can be reviewed for funding. Applicants are responsible for the timely submission of required documents.
4. You can receive in-person help to apply or upload documents at an in-person help center near you. Please visit the link below for a list of these locations and their hours.
5. On April 21, 2023, a link will be posted where interested parties may sign up for a waitlist.

SC Stay Plus is pausing operations

Funding from the US Treasury has been fully dispersed to applicants, and it is unknown at this time if any additional funding will be received. During this pause:

- Review of all open applications will be paused.
- Applications will be left at their most recent review status as of March 15, 2023.
- If more funds become available and the program is able to re-start operations and review applications, applicants will be notified by email or phone call if their application enters review.
- The call center will have limited capacity.
- The expression of interest waitlist will remain open.
