

SCSL Digital Collections

List of South Carolina museums and related museum organizations

Item Type	Text
Publisher	South Carolina State Library
Rights	Copyright status undetermined. For more information contact, South Carolina State Library, 1500 Senate Street, Columbia, South Carolina 29201.
Download date	2024-10-08 21:23:21
Link to Item	http://hdl.handle.net/10827/9288

M9725-
8.2.47
1977
Cop. 2

List of South Carolina Museums and Related Museum Organizations

SOUTH CAROLINA MUSEUM COMMISSION

Box 11296 / Columbia, South Carolina 29211

SOUTH CAROLINA MUSEUMS AND MUSEUM RELATED ORGANIZATIONS
12-15-77

Abbeville

Abbeville County Museum
Mrs. Hap Neuffer
Corner of Poplar and Cherry Streets
29620
459-2696
Wed. 3-5, Sun. 3-5, and by appointment.

Many items and papers of a historical significance pertaining to Abbeville County, Old Abbeville District and South Carolina are housed in this Old Jail that was designed by Robert Mills, c. 1830.

Burt-Starke Mansion
Mrs. W.G. Bowie
313 Greenville Street
29620
459-4297
Open by appointment.

Authentic antebellum home, with the original furniture from 1865, where the last meeting of Jefferson Davis' Cabinet was held on May 3, 1865.

Aiken

Aiken County Historical Museum
Mrs. Arthur Courteney
226 Chesterfield, NE
29801
649-4658
Mon., Wed., and Fri. 10-4, and by appointment.

Indian collections of South Carolina and artifacts of Aiken County and South Carolina.

Aiken Thoroughbred Racing Hall of Fame
Mrs. Whitney Tower
Whiskey Road and Dupree Place
29801
649-7700
Tues.-Sun. 2-5.

Paintings, photographs, jockey silks, trophies, and other memorabilia related to Aiken trained National Champions and special exhibits by highest quality equine artists, film programs and lectures.

Aiken

Redcliffe Plantation
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism
Southeast of North Augusta in Beech Island Community
822-2473
Sun. 1-4.

Constructed by Gov. James Henry Hammond in the 1850's, this two story plantation home contains many of the original family pieces along with memorabilia of John Shaw Billings, 20th century journalist and former editor of Time-Life.

University of South Carolina - Aiken Regional Campus
Jane Winer
171 University Parkway
29801
648-6851
Mon.-Thurs. 9-9, Fri. 9-5.

Rotating exhibits in addition to the University's permanent collection of art.

Allendale

Salkehatchie Art Gallery
Suze Peace
307 Heyward Street
Columbia, SC 29201
584-3446 (at school)
Mon.-Fri. 8:30-5, Sat. 8:30-12, during the school year.

Rotating exhibits of contemporary art.

Anderson

Anderson County Arts Center
Sue Parks
405 North Main Street
29621
224-8811
Mon.-Fri. 9-5, Sat. 10-12, Sun. 2-5.

There is a different exhibit each month representing all types of visual arts.

Anderson

Caldwell-Johnson-Morris House
Doug McDougald, Jr. intersection of Morris and Manning Streets, in the Anderson Historic District 29621
646-3782 (Pendleton District Historical and Recreational Commission)
Open by appointment.

This house is decorated to simulate the fluctuating styles of the 19th century when the Anderson Historic District was in its hey-day.

Beaufort

The Beaufort Museum
T.R. Sams
713 Craven Street
29902 no phone
Mon.-Fri. 10-12 and 2-5, Sat. 10-12.

A general collection focusing on the history and culture of Beaufort County.

The George Parsons Elliott House Museum
Isabelle Verdier
Box 1047
29902
524-8098
Mon.-Fri. 11-3.

Antebellum home, c. 1840, furnished with authentic antiques, Oriental rugs, and some original furniture.

John Mark Verdier House Museum
Henrietta Smith
PO Box 11
29902
524-6334
Wed., Thurs., Fri., and Sat. 11-3.

Recently restored Adam style house, c. 1790, furnished to period.

Belton

Belton City Museum
Judge W.P. Kay
306 Anderson Street
29627
338-7773 or 338-7774
Wed. 3-5 or by appointment.

Artifacts pertaining to Belton and Anderson County, South Carolina.

Bennettsville

Marlboro County Historical Museum and Jennings-Brown House Restoration
Bill Kirney, Jr.
Box 656
29512
479-9247
Mon.-Thurs. 9-1 and 2-5, Fri. 9-1, Sun. 2:30-5:30.

Museum contains relics tracing Marlboro County history through 300 years while Jennings-Brown House depicts how a prominent Bennettsville family lived in 1852.

Bethune

Lynches River Historical Society
Ben Brannon
Box 26
29009
334-6423
First Sun. of each month 3-5, and by appointment.

On display is a collection of historical relics and documents of, primarily, local significance and relating, for the most part, to the 19th century.

Branchville

Branchville Railroad Shrine and Museum
James Ben Berry
Southern Railroad Depot
29432
274-8931
Sun. 12-3.

Model of the Best Friend, and artifacts from the Railroad past.

Camden

Blue Ridge Numismatic Association Museum
Paul Garland
1314 North Broad Street
29020
432-5229
Mon.-Fri. 9-12 and 1-5.

A fiscal history of the South.

Camden Archives
Clyde Williams
1314 North Broad Street
29020
432-3242
Mon.-Fri. 8-12 and 1-5, Sat., Sun. 1-5.

The collection includes books, newspapers, documents of historical significance to the community as well as many aids for genealogical research; in addition, there are display cases with artifacts from our early citizens.

Fine Arts Center of Kershaw County
Lise Swenson
PO Box 845
29020
432-0473
Mon.-Fri. except Wed. 9:30-12 and 1:30-5, Wed. 9:30-12.

The Fine Arts Center is a community center used for classes, meetings, and special programs, as well as monthly art exhibits.

Historic Camden
Hope Boykin
PO Box 710
29020
432-9841
Winter: Tues.-Fri. 10-4, Sat. 10-5, Sun. 1-5.
Summer: Tues.-Fri. 10-5, Sat. 10-6, Sun. 1-6.

A Revolutionary War park featuring narrated slide show, museum buildings, significant archaeological sites and the partially restored Kershaw-Cornwallis mansion.

Charleston

Baptist College at Charleston

Joseph Ward

1-26 at Hwy. 78

29411

797-4011

Mon.-Thurs. 8-10 pm, Fri. 8-5, Sat.-Sun. 1-5.

Changing exhibits under the sponsorship of the L. Mendel River Library on campus are part of the program.

Calhoun Mansion

Mrs. Hazel Heward

16 Meeting Street

29401

722-8205

A Victorian house, c. 1876, restored to the period.

The Charleston Museum

Don Herold

121 Rutledge Avenue (at Calhoun Street)

29401

722-2996

Daily 9-5

Exhibits relating to history, decorative arts, anthropology and natural history in the oldest museum in the United States (founded 1773).

Charles Towne Landing

Janson Cox

1500 Old Town Road

29407

556-4450

Daily 9-5

The open-air Pavilion and underground exhibit museum interprets the settlers' first 100 years in the Low Country.

City Hall Art Gallery

Molly Hartoz

Broad and Meeting Streets

29401

722-4407

Mon.-Fri. 9-5

Oil portraits of the Nation's leaders including Washington, Jackson, Monroe & Calhoun

College of Charleston, Audubon Gallery and Galleria Spoleto USA

Michael Tyzack

Robert Scott Small Library and 91 Wentworth Street

29401

Audubon Gallery - 722-0181, ext. 2030; Galleria Spoleto USA - 722-2764

Audubon Gallery: Mon.-Thurs. 8-midnight, Fri. 8-5, Sat. 9-5, Sun. 2-12.

Galleria Spoleto USA: Mon.-Fri. 9-5.

Charleston

College of Charleston, Audubon Gallery and Galleria Spoleto USA, cont.

Audubon Gallery - Exhibitions of work by the Fine Arts Faculty and Students and rotating exhibits of work by other artists.

Galleria Spoleto USA - Exhibitions of work by nationally and internationally known artists as well as work by new young artists.

Confederate Museum

June Wells

PO Box 547

Folly Beach 29439

723-1541

March 15-October 15: Wed. and Fri. 2-4, Sat. 10-5.

Military and household articles from the Civil War period.

Drayton Hall

Dennis Lawson

Rt. 4, Box 276

29407

766-0188

Open daily.

The oldest and the finest surviving example of early Georgian architecture in the South.

Edmonston-Allston House

Frances Edmunds

21 East Battery

29401

722-7171

Mon.-Sat. 10-5, Sun. 2-5.

Circa 1828 House Museum with magnificent view of Charleston Harbor, this house is a treasure chest of family furnishings in documents, furniture, silver and china.

Thomas Elfe House

J. Frances Brenner and Betty Lemon Brenner

54 Queen Street

29401

722-2130

Mon.-Fri. 10-5, Sat. 10-1.

The miniature Charleston "Single House" is an outstanding example of an 18th century craftsman's home and contains reproductions of the 18th century furniture that reflect the fine craftsmanship of Charleston's famous cabinetmakers.

Charleston

Gibbes Art Gallery
William Coleman
135 Meeting Street
29401
722-2706
Tues.-Sat. 10-5, Sun. 2-5.

American paintings, prints, sculptures, miniature portraits, Oriental objects, Japanese wood block prints, photographs and transitional exhibitions.

Heyward-Washington House (A National Historic Landmark, Built in 1773)
Don Herold
87 Church Street
29401
722-2996
Daily 10-5.

Finest collection of Charleston-made 18th century furniture plus objects relating to Thomas Heyward, Jr., signer of the Declaration of Independence and President George Washington who stayed here in 1791.

Hunley Museum
Don Herold
Corner of Broad and Church Streets (not mailing address - mail to the Charleston 29401 Museum)
722-2996
Daily 10-5.

Full scale replica of the Hunley submarine and other displays relating to the Civil War naval history of Charleston.

Joseph Manigault House (A National Historic Landmark, Built in 1803)
Don Herold
350 Meeting Street
29401
722-2996
Daily 10-5.

Superb Adam-style house with appropriate furnishings including excellent examples of Charleston-made furniture.

Medical University of South Carolina - Macaulay Museum of Dental History
Joseph Waring
171 Ashley Avenue
29401
792-2288
Open by appointment.

The Macaulay Museum of Dental History displays a dentist's office of 100 years ago and other miscellaneous objects and instruments relating to dental history.

Charleston

Medical University of South Carolina, Waring Historical Library
Joseph Waring
171 Ashley Avenue
29401
792-2288
Mon.-Fri. 9-5.

The Waring Historical Library has selective displays from its collection of 6,000 rare medical books, 300 prints of medical interest, and miscellaneous medical and pharmaceutical artifacts of the 18th and 19th centuries.

The Memorial Archives - Museum, The Citadel
Mal Collet
The Citadel
29409
577-6900
Mon.-Fri. 2-5, Sat. 9-5, Sun. 10-5.

Materials relating to the history of The Citadel, the history of South Carolina, and the General Mark W. Clark Collection.

Middleton Place
Sarah Lytle
Ashley River Road
29407
556-6020
Grounds open daily 9-5, House open Tues.-Sun. 10-4:30, Mon. 1:30-4:30; House closed late winter.

Plantation House (c. 1755) with family items including Benjamin West portraits, four-poster "Rice Beds", English silver and a silk copy of the Declaration of Independence, located within landscaped gardens, outdoor stableyards museum nearby.

The Old Charleston Jail and Museum - 1808
Bartley Riddick
19 Magazine Street
29401
723-3861
Daily 10-4:30.

Restored jail with displays of Lawrence Condon's work, and 19th century prison life.

Charleston

The Old Slave Mart Museum

Louise Graves

6 Chalmers Street

29401

722-0079

Mon.-Sat. 10-5, Sun. 2-5; Closed during January.

Slave made hand crafts as well as African artifacts relevant to Afro-American heritage, and documents and pictures pertaining to slavery, exhibited in the only building still standing in Charleston where slaves were sold.

The Post-Courier Newspaper Museum

J. Douglas Donehue

134 Columbus Street

29401

577-7111

Mon.-Fri. 9-5.

The museum presents a history of newspaper publishing generally and Charleston newspapers specifically with authentic tools and equipment plus many artifacts and photographs.

The Powder Magazine

Mrs. Robert Achurch

79 Cumberland Street

29401

722-3767

Mon.-Fri. 9:30-4.

Items of colonial interest.

The Provost

John Hills (Columbia, 758-7855)

Broad Street and East Bay

29401

no phone

March - September: Mon.-Sat. 10-5, Sun. 1-5.

October - November: Mon.-Sat. 10-2, Sun. 1-5.

Closed December and January.

1780 British Prison of American Patriots and excavated Charles Towne sea wall of 1701.

Charleston

Nathaniel Russell House
Frances Edmunds
51 Meeting Street
29401
723-1623
Mon.-Sat. 10-5, Sun. 2-5.

1809 Adam style house with furnishings of the period, famous for free flying staircase, set in spacious gardens.

WCSC Broadcast Museum
Patsy Hicken
80 Alexander Street
29402
723-8371
School Term: Mon.-Fri. 9:30-1:30.
Summer: Mon.-Fri. 1-5.

The story of communication - "From Tom-Tom to Telstar" with antique radios and televisions, experiments and demonstrations.

Cheraw

Cheraw Lyceum Museum
Thomas A. MacCallum
PO Box 191
29520 museum has no phone
Open by appointment - contact Town Hall next door.

A panoramic history display of the development of Cheraw including details of General William T. Sherman's occupation of Cheraw during the War Between the States.

Chesnee

Cowpens National Battlefield
Pat Staneck
Off SC 110 and SC 11
29323
461-2828 or 461-8972
Daily 8:30-5:30.

Artwork and memorabilia connected with the heroes of the Battle of Cowpens and strategic military maneuvers with walking trails and auto tour road.

Clemson

Clemson University - John C. Calhoun Mansion (Fort Hill) and Hanover House
Revelie Brannon and Vera Cantrell

Clemson University Campus - Department of Public Relations
29631

656-2475 (Fort Hill); 656-2241 (Hanover House)

Tues.-Sat. 10-12 and 1-5:30, Sun. 2-6.

Fort Hill: The plantation home of John C. Calhoun and his son-in-law
Thomas Clemson; the home is primarily furnished with original family heirlooms.

Hanover House: French Huguenot home built in 1716 in Berkeley County and moved to Clemson campus in the early 1940's.

Rudolph E. Lee Gallery

Tom Diamond

College of Architecture (Lee Hall) - Clemson University Campus

29631

656-3081

Mon.-Fri. 9-4:30, Sun. 2-5.

A constantly changing program of temporary exhibits featuring painting, graphics, sculpture, crafts, architectural and student work of local, regional, and national artists.

Clinton

Clinton Museum

Karolyn Freeman

Rt. 2, Sumter Street

29325

823-1350

Mon.-Fri. 9-5, Sat. and Sun. by appointment.

The Clinton Museum traces the history of Clinton from pre-Revolutionary War days to the present and displays special exhibits several times during the year recognizing local artists and craftsmen.

Home of Peace - Thornwell Home for Children

Charlotte Roth

South Broad Street

29325

833-1232, ext. 30

Open by appointment.

Original building of Thornwell Orphanage, home of William Plumer Jacobs, built in 1875.

Clinton

John H. Thomason Library Gallery
Robert Jolly
South Broad Street
29325
833-2820
Mon.-Fri. 8-11pm, Sat. 9-5, Sun. 2-11.

Changing exhibits of contemporary art.

Thornwell Museum - Thornwell Home for Children
Dr. Julius Benton, Jr.
Nellie Scott Memorial Library Building - South Broad Street
29325
833-1232, ext 65
Open by appointment daily 9-4.

Museum collection includes astronomical, geological, and natural history collections, as well as a library of 12,000 first-edition and rare books, in addition to a mobile astronomical research instrument also a part of the Museum program.

Clover

King's Mountain National Military Park
James Anderson
King's Mountain, NC 28086
936-7508 or 936-7479
June 1 to Labor Day: Daily 9-6.
September to May: Daily 9-5.

Park Visitor Center: Light and sound historical exhibit program with weapons, household furnishings, tools, and other objects relating to the Revolutionary War.

King's Mountain State Park
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism
15 miles northwest of York on Highway 61
222-3209
Open daylight hours.

Development of a Up Country homestead 1800-1850 from subsistence living to cotton plantation with log cabins, outbuildings, cotton gin, and other examples of living in first half of the 19th century - to be open Summer, 1978.

Cokesbury

Cokesbury College
Mrs. Edwin Adams
112 Janeway
Greenwood, SC 29646
223-1719
Open by appointment.

Restored antebellum school building with chapel, bedroom and parlor.

Columbia

Allen University - J.S. Flipper Learning Resources Center
Theo Taylor
1530 Harden Street
29204
254-4165, ext. 356
Mon.-Fri. 8-5, Sat.-Sun. 2-6.

Faculty and student paintings.

Columbia College
Steve Nevitt
Columbia College Drive
29203
786-3012
Daily 7-11pm.

A new gallery for Columbia College has opened in the recently completed Music/Art Center and will feature work of professional quality by local and regional artists.

Columbia Museums of Art and Science
Walter Hathaway
1112 Bull Street
29201
799-2810 or 799-2812
Tues.-Sat. 10-5, Sun. 2-6.

Permanent collections: 13th-19th century European and American paintings and sculpture, art on paper, Planetarium, botanical garden, natural history, aquarium, Richland Art School, contemporary art and sculpture, reference art library, films, concerts, Renaissance Art Galleries, etc.

Columbia

Governor's Mansion and Grounds, Lace House, Boyleston Gardens
Augustus Graydon
800 block of Richland Street
29201
758-3452
Open by appointment.

Home of the Governors since 1865, typical period mansion built in 1855, and 2½ acre city garden which is one of the largest in town gardens in the United States.

Hampton-Preston House
Rodger Stroup
1615 Blanding Street
29201
252-0938
Tues.-Sat. 10-4, Sun. 2-5.

The antebellum townhouse of the prominent Hampton family of South Carolina.

Learning Resources Center of Benedict College
David Johnson
Taylor and Harden Streets
29204
256-4220, ext. 354
Daily 9-5.

Student and faculty exhibits on a rotating basis.

Robert Mills House
Rodger Stroup
1616 Blanding Street
29201
252-7742
Tues.-Sat. 10-4, Sun. 2-5.

A decorative arts museum of the 1810-1825 period.

Russell House University Union
John Foster
University of South Carolina
29208
777-7130
Daily 7:30-11:30pm.

Rotating exhibitions of art.

Columbia

South Carolina Confederate Relic Room and Museum
LaVerne Watson
Sumter and Pendleton Streets
29201
758-2144
Mon.-Fri. 9-5.

Artifacts from all periods of South Carolina history, including fire-arms, swords, flags, uniforms, dresses, children's clothing and dolls, etc.

South Carolina Department of Mental Health, Department of Archives and History
Inez Nolan Fripp
2100 Bull Street
29201
758-7058
Mon.-Fri. 10:30-12, 3-5.

History of South Carolina care of the mentally ill depicted in artifacts, portraits, original records, authentic antique furniture, Robert Mills' drawings or designs of 1822 building, etc.

Museums and Archives, University of South Carolina
Barry Rosen
McKissick Library Building
29208
777-7251
Mon.-Fri. 9-4.

This facility contains several areas: (1) The Archives, containing records dating back to the founding of the Institution and featuring exhibits based on these records; (2) The Art Gallery which has exhibits by artists both on and off campus; (3) The Lawrence L. Smith Geology Museum which has a collection of minerals, fossils, and meteorites; (4) The University Collections which features revolving exhibits, the James F. Byrnes Collection and the Bernard Baruch Silver, as well as part of the Howard Gemstone Collection; (5) The Education Museum, which houses historically significant textbooks and educational records, and (6) The Broadcasting Communication Archives, displaying memorabilia of the State's outstanding broadcasters.

Woodrow Wilson Boyhood Home
Rodger Stroup
1705 Hampton Street
29201
254-6333
Tues.-Sat. 10-4, Sun. 2-5.

Memorabilia connected with Woodrow Wilson's four years in Columbia (1871-1875).

Conway

Horry County Historical Museum
Dr. Frank Sanders
Main Street
29526
248-4834
Daily 9-5.

Artifacts relating to Horry County history.

Kimbel Library, Coastal Carolina College of the University of South Carolina
Martha Thomas
Hwy 501, Rt. 6
29526
347-3161
Mon.-Thurs. 8-9pm, Fri. 8-5, Sat. 2-5, Sun. 2-6.

A special area of Kimbel Library will house travelling exhibitions and exhibitions of student and faculty work in the arts.

Darlington

Darlington County Historical Room
Horace Rudisell
Room 307, Darlington County Court House 29532 no phone
Mon.-Fri. 9-5.

Artifacts relating to Darlington County history.

Darlington County Museum of Ethnic History
Wilamina Johnson
325 Pearl Street
29532
393-7052
Thurs. 4-6, and by appointment.

Pictures, items, slave records and plaques dating back to 100 or more years ago, the room beneath the museum was the first school for Afro-Americans in Darlington County.

Joe Weatherly Stock Car Museum
Floyd Lane
Hwy 34 West
29532
393-4041 or 393-2103
March-October: Daily 9-5.
November-February: Daily 9-12, 2-5.

World's largest collection of stock racing cars, National Motorsports Press Association Hall of Fame, Trophies and illegal racing parts, and the only, you drive it, simulated race car.

Dillon

The James W. Dillon House Museum
Gen. John C. Henegan
1304 West Main Street
29536
774-8463 or 774-8108
Open by appointment.

The James W. Dillon House Museum is completely furnished with the period furniture and furnishings as used when the house was built in 1890.

Due West

Erskine College Exhibition Center
Felix Bauer
Main Street
29639
379-2131
Daily 2-5:30 or by appointment.

For nine months (September through May) every month another exhibit (loan exhibits from the Smithsonian, Museum of Modern Art, etc.) paintings, sculpture works, graphics, folk art, one exhibit per year from a foreign country, one a year of a South Carolina artist.

Edgefield

Magnolia Dale
Hortense Woodson
320 Norris Street
29824
637-3335
Open by appointment.

Historic house with artifacts relating to Edgefield County history.

Oakley Park U.D.C. Shrine
Mrs. George Covar
300 Columbia Road (intersection of Hwys 23 and 25 South)
29824
637-6236
Mon., Tues., and Fri. 9-12, 1-4.

Of interest to visitors are portraits, elegant chandeliers, plaster ceiling medallions, carved sunburst mantles and furniture belonging to the Gary and Evans Family and other well known families.

Edgefield

Pottersville Museum
Carlee McLendon
Rt. 2, Box 4
29824
637-3333
Open by appointment.

This unique museum displays pottery that was made in Edgefield District in the early 1800's and is displayed in a restored 1810 kitchen building.

Erhardt

Rivers Bridge Museum
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation, and Tourism
Northwest of Allendale off Hwy 641
267-3675
Open by appointment.

Contains collection of Civil War and local memorabilia as well as exhibit on the Civil War.

Florence

Florence Air and Missile Museum
T.C. Griffin
PO Box 1326
29503
665-5118
Daily 9-6.

Thirty eight aircraft, rockets and missiles.

The Florence Museum of Art, Science, and History
Dr. William Burns
558 Spruce Street
29501
662-3351
Tues.-Sat. 10-5, Sun. 2-5.

The art of the Western World, Oriental art, colonial art of South Carolina; the history of South Carolina, with emphasis on the Pee Dee region; The Earth In Time and Space: a new science exhibit; the Kuker Office, a restoration of an old land grant and insurance office of 75 years ago, plus Hall of Primitive Cultures.

Florence

Francis Marion College Art Gallery

Joyce Dowis

332 West Pine Street

29501

669-4121

Mon.-Thurs. 8:30-8:30, Fri. 8:30-5:30, Sat. 1-5.

Changing displays of contemporary paintings, prints, sculpture and crafts by professional artists.

Fort Jackson

Fort Jackson Museum

Clayton Kleckley

Building 4442, Jackson Blvd.

29207

751-7419 or 751-7355

Tues.-Sun. 1-4.

The Fort Jackson Museum Complex consists of one main post museum, two annex museums and outdoor static displays with exhibits relating to the History of Fort Jackson, Life of Andrew Jackson, South Carolina Military History, and Evolution of the Individual Soldier's Training.

Frogmore

York W. Bailey Cultural Educational Exhibition Center

Agnes Sherman

Penn Community Services, St. Helena Island

29920

838-2290

Mon.-Fri. 9-4.

Displayed are African artifacts, historical photos, antiques and historical documents.

Hunting Island State Park

South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism

17 miles Southwest of Beaufort on US 21

838-2011

Daily daylight hours.

Included in the lighthouse complex are two storage outbuildings, an oil storage house (office) and an exhibit on the history of lighthouses.

Gaffney

Limestone College
Sara Setzer
112 Pacolet Drive
29340
489-7151
Mon.-Thurs. 8-10pm, Fri. 8-5, Sun. 6-10.

Monthly exhibits by Limestone College students, faculty, and area artists.

Lipscomb Home
Dr. Jay Lipscomb
203 Richardson Street
29340
489-3589 or 489-0206
Open by appointment.

A general collection.

Log Cabin Museum
Anthony Hopper
124 Fernwood Drive
29340
489-2214
Open by appointment.

General collection in Log Cabin c. 1820.

Possum Trot
Jack Blanton
CHAPS, Inc., Box 998
29340
489-6322
Open by appointment

One room school house, c. 1880, with original furnishings.

Georgetown

Hopsewee Plantation
Helen Maynard
Rt. 2, Box 197B
29440
546-7891
March-October: Tues.-Fri. 10-5 and by appointment, Grounds open every day, yearround.

Hopsewee, c. 1740, birthplace of Thomas Lynch, Jr., a signer of the Declaration of Independence, is a registered National Historic Landmark, and is open from attic to cellar.

Georgetown

The Harold Kaminski House

Esther Avant

1003 Front Street

29440

546-7706

Tues.-Fri. 10-4; Tour groups by appointment.

Outstanding collection of 17th century antiques.

The Rice Museum

Jim Fitch

Front and Screven Streets

29440

546-7423

Mon.-Fri. 9:30-4:30, Sat. (October - March) 10-1, Sat. (April - September)

10-4, Sun. 2-4:30.

The permanent exhibits include dioramas, paintings, models, and artifacts that imaginatively depict the phases of the cultivation of rice, and the lives of those involved in this most important agricultural commodity.

Greenville

Furman University

Thomas Flowers

Department of Art

29613

294-2076

Daily 9-5.

Travelling exhibits, various media; senior art majors exhibit each Spring; student exhibits occasionally.

Greenville County Museum of Art

Jack Morris

420 College Street

29601

271-7570

Mon.-Sat. 10-5, Sun. 1-5.

Works of American art, from pre-Christian American Indian art to paintings, sculpture, prints, ceramics, and textiles by outstanding contemporary artists, are displayed in the permanent collection gallery; changing exhibitions range from local artist shows to regional competitions to exhibitions which bring to the region works from major artists, museums, and collectors.

Greenville

The Bob Jones University Museum of Sacred Art and The Bowen Bible Lands Museum
Joan Davis
Wade Hampton Blvd.
29614
242-5100, ext. 275
Tues.-Sun. 2-5.

A major university museum which houses one of the most important art collections in the Southeast.

The Bob Jones University Planetarium
Stuart Custer
Wade Hampton Blvd.
29614
242-5100
Sun. 3pm during the school year.

A thirty minute lecture concerning the placement of the stars during the corresponding time of the lecture.

Greenwood

Lander College
Robert Poe
Stanley and Crews Street
29646
229-8231
Mon.-Fri. 9-4, 6:30-9.

Visiting exhibits of contemporary drawings, prints, paintings, photographs, and crafts.

The Museum
Dubose Stuckey
567 Phoenix Street
29646
229-7093
Mon.-Fri. 9-5, Sun. 1-5.

Over 100 categories of world wide artifacts and animal mounts.

The Railroad Historical Center
L.B. Adams
117 W. Cambridge Ave.
29646
229-5813 or 229-3828
Open by appointment.

Steam locomotive (built in 1906) and all cars necessary for a complete passenger train including a President of the railroad car and a very old passenger car adjacent to a large stone home used for museum items.

Hartsville

H.B. Robinson Information Center
Bonnie Hall
29550
332-26333
Mon.-Fri. 9-5.

The Information Center contains numerous exhibits and film presentations on energy-related subjects such as how electricity is made from various energy sources and how energy can be conserved and utilized to meet our increasing needs.

Kingstree

Thorn tree House
Sam McIntosh
29556
354-7124
Sun. 2-5 and by appointment.

Historic house museum furnished with late 18th century South Carolina furniture and prints.

Lancaster

Andrew Jackson State Park
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism
Northwest of Lancaster of US 521
29720
285-3344
Daily 9-4.

Exhibit on the life and times of Andrew Jackson as well as an exhibit on 18th and 19th century tools and implements.

Laurens

James Dunklin House
Jean H. Walker
544 West Main Street
29630
984-4735
Sat.-Sun. 2-5.

Historic house, c. 1812, with original furnishings.

Lexington

Lexington County Museum
Horace Harmon
PO Box 637
29072
356-8369
Tues.-Sat. 10-4, Sun. 1-4, and by appointment.

The Lexington County Museum is a restoration complex of 12 buildings containing exhibits of furniture, textiles, agricultural implements and other artifacts of Lexington County history from 1770 to 1860.

McClellanville

Hampton Plantation State Park
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation, and Tourism
8 miles North of McClellanville off US 17
546-9361
Sun. 1-4.

Ancestral home of late SC Poet Laureate Archibald Rutledge, this early 18th century Low Country home is now under restoration.

McConnells

Brattonsville Historical District
Joe Rainey
Rt. 1
29726
684-2327 or 684-9269
May-September: Tues.-Fri. 10-4, Sun. 3-6, other times by appointment.

"The Homestead", one of three antebellum homes now being restored, furnished in the Federal and Empire motif reflects the lifestyle of wealthy Up Country planters in the decades before the War Between the States.

Mt. Pleasant

Boone Hall Plantation
Willie McRae
Hwy. 17 North, Avenue of Oaks
29464
884-4371
March 15-Labor Day: Mon.-Sat. 8:30-6:30, Sun. 1-5.
Winter: Mon.-Sat. 9-5, Sun. 1-5.

A working antebellum plantation.

Mt. Pleasant

Patriots Point, The Naval and Maritime Museum, Aircraft Carrier Yorktown
RADM. Herman Kossler
PO Box 986
29464
884-2727
Daily 9-6.

A comprehensive display of aircraft, mines, missiles and guns in addition to living and working areas on board the only aircraft carrier in the world open to the general public, WW II's famous "Fighting Lady".

Murrells Inlet

Brookgreen Gardens, A Society for Southeastern Flora and Fauna
Gurdon Tarbox
US 17
29576
237-4218
Daily 9:30-4:45.

Outstanding collection of American sculpture in a garden setting and a native Wildlife Park on the site of an old colonial rice plantation.

Myrtle Beach

South Carolina Hall of Fame
Robert Pryor
PO Box 1828
29577
448-4021
Mon.-Fri. 9-5.

Sixteen portraits of distinguished South Carolinians - past and present - including the eight signers of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution.

Newberry

Newberry College
K. David Brown
2100 College Street, Holland Hall
29108
276-5010
Mon.-Fri. 8:30-5.

Monthly travelling exhibits during the school year primarily by South Carolina and regional exhibits.

Ninety Six

Ninety Six National Historic Site Superintendent
29666
543-4068
Daily 8:30-5:30.

Site of colonial frontier settlement and Revolutionary War outpost.

Orangeburg

Claflin College Fine Arts Center
Karen Gilstrap
College Avenue
29115
534-2710, ext 49
Mon.-Fri. 9-5.

Rotating exhibitions of art.

Orangeburg County Historical Society
Hugo Ackerman
421 Middleton Street
29115
534-2207
Daily 10:30-1, and by appointment.

Genealogical and historical documents, photographs; recent acquisitions;
a few items of museum quality.

South Carolina State College, Whittaker Gallery
Leo Twiggs
College Avenue
29117
536-7174
Mon.-Thurs. 8:30-10pm, Fri. 8:30-6, Sat. 8:30-5, Sun. 3-10.

The Whittaker Gallery is located on the lower level of the Miller F. Whittaker Library and offers a varied program of art exhibits from local, national and international sources.

Parris Island

Depot Museum
Gunnery Sargent Connell War Memorial Building
29905
525-2602
Mon.-Fri. 7-4:30, Sat.-Sun. 9-4:30.

A living memorial to the battles of yesteryear - a collection of artifacts and memorabilia highlighting the history of Parris Island Marines.

Pendleton

Ashtabula Plantation House
James Miles
101 Roslyn Drive
Clemson 29631
646-3847

April-October: Sun. 2-6, and by appointment.

A very attractively furnished and displayed antebellum plantation home - nine rooms and two great halls open to the public pretty much as they might have been 125 to 150 years ago.

Pendleton District Agricultural Museum

Hurley Badders
125 Queen Street
29670
646-7271 or 646-3782

Tues., Thurs., Sun. 1-4:30, and by appointment.

Farm machinery, tools and general history exhibits of Northwest corner of South Carolina, along with special exhibits of statewide impact.

Woodburn Plantation House

James Miles
101 Roslyn Drive
Clemson 29631
654-2410

Open by appointment.

Beginning stages of development of a house museum of the antebellum period - 18 rooms, 4 stories - architecturally and historically interesting.

Pickens

Pickens County Art Museum, Pickens County History Museum
Ann Meier, Director
Pendleton and Johnson Streets
29671
878-4965

History: Mon. and Fri. 2-5, Wed. 9-12.
Art: Mon. 2-5, Wed. 9-5, Thurs., Fri. 11-5.

Rotating exhibitions of art, documents and artifacts relating to Pickens County history and memorabilia of General Andrew Pickens, all housed in a Victorian jail.

Point South

Tullifinny Farm Museum
Alfred Miller
PO Box 5454
Hilton Head Island 29928
726-5855
Daily 9-5.

Authentic antebellum farm complex.

Rock Hill

Museum of York County
Charles Hall
Rt. 4, Mount Gallant Road
29730
366-4116
Mon.-Sat. 9-5, Sun. 1-5.

World's largest collection of African hooved mammals, Hall of the Carolinas, Yesteryear, Hall of Western Hemisphere, live animal center, Settlements Planetary, natural trail and art gallery.

Winthrop College
Edmund Lewandowski
Rutledge Building, Department of Art
29730
323-2126
Daily 9-4:30 and by appointment.

Monthly exhibitions in a wide variety of art - local, regional and national in scope - paintings, sculpture, drawings, prints, and crafts - contemporary and historical.

Roebuck

Walnut Grove Plantation
Dr. George Johnson
Rt. 1
29376
576-6546
Mon.-Sat. 11-5, Sun. 2-5.

Colonial home restored to the period of 1765 with kitchen, school, house, well, and doctor's office.

Spartanburg

The Gallery
Shelley Churchill
385 South Spring Street
29301
582-7616
Mon.-Fri. 10-5, Sat. 2-4, Sun. 3-5.

The Gallery offers a constantly changing series of exhibits by professional artists predominantly from the Southeastern United States, but including well-known foreign artists also.

Milliken Art Gallery
Walter Thompson
Fairview and Drayton Streets, on Converse College campus
29301
585-6421
Mon., Wed., Thurs., 2:30-5; Tues., Thurs. 9:30-12, and by appointment.

Temporary exhibitions of painting, sculpture, prints and photography.

Spartanburg County Regional Museum
Carolyn Creal
501 Otis Blvd.
29301
no phone
September - May: Tues.-Sat. 10-12, 3-5, Sun. 3-5.

General collection related to Spartanburg County history.

Sandor Teszler Library Gallery
Frank Anderson
Wofford College campus
29301
585-4821
Mon.-Thurs. 8-midnight; Fri. 8-5, 7-10; Sat. 10-5; Sun. 2-5, 6-12, during the school year.

Rotating exhibitions of art.

University of South Carolina - Spartanburg Gallery
Brian Lindsay
Library Bldg. and other sites on campus
29301
578-1800, ext. 210 or 211
Mon.-Sat. 8-10pm.

Rotating exhibitions of art.

Spartanburg

Wofford College Planetarium
Daniel Olds
North Church Street
29301
585-4821
Open by appointment.

No display, planetarium only.

St. Matthews

Calhoun County Museum
Jeanne Ulmer
303 Butler Street
29135
874-3964
Mon.-Fri. 10-5.

The Indian culture, heritage and history of the area which is now Calhoun County along with a costume and silver collection may be enjoyed alone or on a guided tour.

Sullivan's Island

Fort Moultrie National Monument
Superintendent
Middle Street
29482
833-3123
Daily 9-6, Daylight Savings Time, Daily 9-5, Eastern Standard Time.

Although the Visitor Center displays a few artifacts which were found on-site, the Fort exhibits six different time periods in the history of American coastal defense.

Fort Sumter National Monument
Superintendent
Charleston Harbor, reached via Fort Sumter Tours
29482
883-3123
Tour boat schedule varies with the season.

Exhibits feature material excavated at Fort Sumter and include a diorama of the "First Shot", a model of Fort Sumter as it appeared in 1861, and the flag which flew over the Fort on April 12, 1861.

Summerville

Old Dorchester
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism
South of Summerville on Hwy 641
873-1740
Daily during daylight hours.

Includes ruins of the 18th century village of Dorchester, the tabby fort and St. George's Parish Church tower, as well as an interpretive display on the history of Old Dorchester and the Ashley River Community.

Sumter

Sumter County Historical Society Museum - Archives, Williams-Brice House
Sherman Smith
122 North Washington St.
29150
775-0908
Wed.-Sun. 2-5, and by appointment.

Our display consists in part of paintings, drawings, sculpture, dolls, maps and documents, furniture, toys, guns, SC Dispensary bottles, sad irons, fossils and country life household implements of an earlier time, as well as a very active archives.

Sumter Gallery of Art
Jane Walker
421 North Main St.
29150
775-0543
September - May: Tues.-Sun. 3-6, and by appointment.

New art exhibits monthly featuring individual reknown artists, special state collections, annual young peoples exhibit, a permanent exhibit of selected paintings by Miss Elizabeth White and a Sales Gallery displaying the works of members of the Sumter Artists Guild.

University of South Carolina - Sumter Regional Campus
Ken Callenda
Miller Road
29150
775-6341, ext. 51
Open by appointment.

Rotating exhibits of art and history.

Sunset

Keowee Toxaway State Park
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism
Northwest of Pickens off Hwy 11
868-9478
Daily 10-4.

Orientation building with four display kiosks on a $\frac{1}{4}$ mile trail interpreting the natural history of the area and the life of the Cherokee Indians that lived nearby.

Keowee Toxaway Visitors Center
Debbie Brockman
29685
882-5620
Mon.-Sat. 9-5, Sun. 10:30-6.

The Center uses colorful, animated displays and exhibits to take visitors on a magical trip through the history of energy.

Union

Rose Hill State Park
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism
Nine miles Southwest of Union off US 176
29379
427-5966
Daily 10-4.

Located on park grounds is the restored plantation home of Gov. William H. Gist built by him between 1828 and 1832 containing many of the original Gist family pieces along with several out buildings and an interpretive display of Up County cotton plantations.

Union County Museum
A.A. Arthur
East Main and South Church Streets
29379
427-3681
Wed. and Fri. 10-12, 3-5, Sun. 3-5, and by appointment.

Items dating from the 1730's to date, including the table on which the secession of South Carolina was drafted.

Union

University of South Carolina - Union Regional Campus
Janet Wright
401 East Main Street
29379
427-3681 or 427-3682
Mon.-Fri. 8-5.

A continuing exhibit of oil paintings by art students at the Union campus of the University of South Carolina.

Winnsboro

Fairfield Museum
William Taylor
132 South Congress Street
29180
635-9811
Mon., Wed., Fri. 10:30-12:30, 1:30-4:30; 2nd and 4th Sun. of each month 2-4.

The Fairfield Museum, located in the Cathcart-Ketchin Building, c. 1830, has six rooms furnished with period pieces and six rooms with exhibits of everyday items dating back to the 18th century including genealogical information, plus Indian artifacts covering 10,000 years.

Woodruff

Price House Restoration
Thomas Evins
29388
476-2483
Tues.-Sat. 11-5, Sun. 2-5.

Historic house, c. 1795, with furnishings.

Other Exhibit Areas and Historic Sites
12-15-77

Catawba

Landsford Canal State Park
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism

Central

Central Wesleyan College
Mrs. Martha Evatt, Head Librarian
29630
639-2453

Chester County

Chester County Log Cabin
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism

Columbia

Richland County Public Library
Carol Duggan
1400 Sumter Street
29201
799-9084

Columbia Area Job Service
Joseph Goss
PO Box 567
29202
758-3111

Jewish Community Center
Jack Weintraub
4540 Trenholm Road
29206
787-2023

Great Falls

Log Cabin
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism

Greenville

Fine Arts Center of the School District of Greenville County
Virginia Uldrick, Director
1613 West Washington Road
29601
235-9687

Hartsville

Coker College
R. Nickey Brumbaugh
Art Department
29550
332-1381

Hartsville Arts Alive
Mrs. H.J. Ladue
325 Churchill Road
29550
332-5253

Lancaster

University of South Carolina - Lancaster Regional Campus
Frances Murphree
Box 370
29720
777-6877

Moncks Corner

South Carolina National Bank
Frances Shipley
PO Box 1214
29461
899-2144

Murrells Inlet

Huntington Beach State Park
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism

Ridgeway

Ruff's General Store Museum
Nancy Ruff
29130
337-2272

Sesquicentennial

Log Cabin
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism

Spartanburg

Spartanburg County Arts Council
Georgia Allen, Director
385 South Spring Street
29301
583-2776

Emerging Museums
12-15-77

Abbeville

Guillebeau House
Old Abbeville District Historical Commission
Ruth LaForge, Regional Historic Preservation Planner
Upper Savannah Council of Governments
PO Box 1366
Greenwood 29646
229-6627

Anderson

Anderson College
Dr. S.C. McCarter
Department of Fine Arts
29621
226-6181

Barnwell

Barnwell County Museum
Jack Tongour
29812
259-3933

Charleston

Governor Aiken House
The Charleston Museum

Castle Fort Pinckney
South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism

Old Exchange Building
Hugh Z. Graham, Jr.
14 Cedarwood Lane
Columbia 29205
256-2577

Cokesbury

Cokesbury Home of the UDC
Mrs. Sterling Graydon
Cherokee Hills
Greenwood 29646
223-8910

Columbia

Mann-Simons Cottage
Mrs. Ladare Thompson
415 Old Woodlands Road
29209
776-8878

South Carolina Museum Commission
David Sennema, Director
PO Box 11296
29211
758-8197

Cowpens

Southern Railroad Station
Mrs. William Dearyberry
Box 10
29330
463-6192

Darlington

Darlington Art Museum
Dan Berry
Darlington Arts Council

Gaffney

Winnie Davis Hall of History - Limestone College
Anthony Hopper, President
Cherokee Historic and Preservation Society
PO Box 998
29340
489-2214

Greenville

Textile Place
contact Jack Morris
Greenville County Museum of Art

Greenville

Kilgore-Lewis House
Mrs. W.W. Harrison
314 Jones Avenue
29605
233-1223

Hartsville

Hartsville Historical Museum Commission
Mrs. G.A. Kalber
523 East Home Avenue
29550
332-3673

Jacob-Kelley House
Horace Rudisell
Darlington County Historical Commission
Darlington 29532

Laurens

Octagon House
Mrs. Charles Allen, Director
101 Arrowood Lane
29360
984-3648

Marietta

Aerospace Medicine Museum
Dr. F.W. King
Rt. 1
29661
836-6307

Moncks Corner

Moncks Corner Museum (Southern Railroad Depot)
Cecil Guerry, President
Berkeley County Historical Society
Nesbitt House
29461
257-2711

Neeses

Agricultural Museum
Ellen Chaplin
29107
247-5338

St. Matthews

Museum of Stationary Steam Power
G. Vaughn Smith
RD 2, Box 262 A 29135
874-3412

Seneca

Lumley Museum
Max Wiggington
29678
882-4222 (office); 882-8620 (home)
also call Mrs. Bell (882-8213)

Spartanburg

Spartanburg County Art Museum
Mrs. Roger McDuffie
Firethorn Lane
29302
579-2106

South Carolina School for the Deaf Museum
Franklin D. Jacques, Curator and Historian
(home) #1 Kingsgate Drive
Columbia 29205
799-6318

Spartanburg County Science Museum
Mrs. Eugenia Durham
776 Plume Street
29302
585-5190

Walterboro

Colleton County Cultural Complex
Phillip Burke, Project Coordinator
Walterboro-Colleton County Recreation Commission
PO Box 173
29488
549-2729 or 549-2621

M9725 8.147 197South Carolina 010120
List of South Carolina mu 1977

0 0001 0115921 8

York

York Museum
contact Joe Rainey
Brattonsville Historic District