The 10 Principles of Community Policing

1. Change.
2. Leadership.
3. Vision.
4. Partnership.
5. Problem solving.
6. Equity.
7. Trust.
8. Empowerment.
9. Service.
10. Accountability.

Community policing today involves the police partnering with the community to address public safety issues and improve the quality of life. Police and the community work together to identify problems and to respond to community concerns and needs. These efforts help build community trust.

Interfaith Awareness

Interfaith Partners of South Carolina announced on December 30 the launch of S.C. Interfaith Harmony Month (January). The group released a statement recognizing Governor Nikki Haley for proclaiming S.C. Interfaith Harmony Month each year.

Healing & Peace Ceremony Sunday, January 8 - 3:00 PM

S.C. State House front plaza (north side)
A recognition of the pain we have experienced during violence around the world in 2016 and reflections on both personal and community peace. Interfaith ceremony presented by Temple Osireion. Questions contact sekhmet@osireion.com.
